LOCAL WOMAN'S GREAT NIECE IS 4-H WINNER FOR UNITED STATES

Mrs. Louis Albert Banks, of this city, is the great-aunt of Miss Geraldine deLancey, of Corvallis, who was recently announced as the winner of the coveted Moses trophy as the most outstanding 4-H club girl in the United States and on Wednesday evening was presented with a scholarship of $200 and the Moses trophy at a banquet held by the national 4-H club congress in Chicago. The trophy is considered the top honor available in all club work.

Miss deLancey, who is 18 years of age and a freshman in home economics at Oregon State college, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. deLancey, of Corvallis. She won the Patterson leadership trophy at the state fair this fall as the outstanding club girl in Oregon. She has had an exceptionally well-rounded program of projects and during her club career has won 57 first places, 15 seconds and 9 thirds in various club contests. She estimates the value of her club projects at $271.32, which included $78.55 prize money. Two previous trips to the middle west and east are a result of Miss deLancey's leadership activities. As state winner in the girls' record contest last year she won a free trip to the national club congress, where she was rated third in the national. In 1939 she teamed with Hildegard Schloer, of Corvallis, to become the top poultry consumption demonstration team resulting in a trip to the world poultry congress in Cleveland, Ohio. Four years a club leader, her demonstration team won the girls state championship in 1936. She is the present president of the Corvallis leaders' association. Project competition in her clubs have a record of 100% completion. Miss deLancey's winning this year's Moses trophy brings that award for the sixth time to Oregon.
