Loy-Douglas Comedy at Indian Mirth Producer

By L. K. P.

If you like sophisticated comedy, don't miss Myrna Loy and Melvyn Douglas in "Third Finger Left Hand," now playing at Hunt's Indian theatre. The play is one of the most delightful entertainments of the current season and the plot is exceptionally clever and holds one's interest from start to finish.

Myrna Loy is cast as a "financier," who poses as a married woman to make her position as fashion editor on a magazine more accurate. Her ability as a clever actress is shown in this picture, and Melvyn Douglas plays his part equally well as Miss Loy. The story leaves you chuckling and happy, and in leaving the theatre you find yourself urging your friends not to miss the production.

In addition to the main feature there is a Paramount All-American football team show; Pinky Tomlin's orchestra on tour, and Popeye the Sailor comedy.
