POET'S CORNER

LIFT HIGH THE STANDARD
America the land we love,
Land of the brave and free
Courageous men, loyal men
And men of honesty.
Today we sing America,
With loyalty and pride,
Sing of our land of liberty,
Land where our fathers died,
So, honest men, faithful men
Men so brave and true
Lift high the standard of our land
The red, white and blue.
Yes all who love America
Help hold her standard high
Then sure will come the answer
To our agonizing cry.
Oh, God, pray bless America
With all that's good and true
The Christian standards of our land
Was given us by you.
Through loyal men, honest men,
And men of royal birth
The noblest and the finest men,
That's found in all the earth.
Your blessings on America
Will come we know each day
If men and women of our land
Will tribute to you pay.
For all the blessings in the past,
For men of faith and love,
A land of honor and respect
That trusts in God above.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Listen at 5:00 o'clock Tuesday, Dec. 17, to the American Legion auxiliary program over KRNI. This is to be a Christmas program with music furnished by the choir of the Episcopal church. We know you will enjoy it. Each first and third Tuesday at 5:00 Umpqua unit has a program which is varied and interesting. The same evening at 8:00 at the armory the unit and post have their regular meetings. This next Tuesday will be the Christmas party with a most interesting program by local talent. Each member will bring gifts of toys or something for an older boy or girl and raisins or jello for the baskets to be packed the next day. There will be about 70 baskets sent out this year. Each will contain food and gifts.

Thursday night the Legion and auxiliary met at the building just north of George Caskey's garage to mend toys for all the youngsters who will receive them from various local sources. The American Legion took this task upon themselves as a community service. Toys, however, will be divided and anyone who will help mend those who have given these. The auxiliary and the Junior Women's club are dressing dolls. The Junior auxiliary has also dressed a number.

Do you like to see tables full of interesting gifts? You should see the gift shop at the veterans' hospital! It has the most intriguing gifts! There a veteran may choose a gift for son, daughter or wife. The American Legion auxiliary sponsors this gift shop and Mrs. Irvin Riegel, department hospital chairman, has arranged the gifts in a most attractive manner. You will see hand-embroidered pillow slips, perfume, socks, ties, mufflers, pictures, vanity sets, jewelry, all the things you would choose for yourself as gifts. The local unit and those of southern Oregon gave those gifts. They are not sold. There is also a gift shop at the store in the back of Roy Bellows' store. This sale for want of a better name is called a rummage sale, but here one may find gift items, shrubs, clothing and shoes. These sell for a very nominal price, but the sum received in turn helps carry on the vast program of Umpqua unit. You may call 673 or 357-R if you have clothing for us. We thank those who have given so generously.

A happy time was given the veterans at the facility on Wednesday night when another party was given them by Umpqua unit. The town's women are most gracious in attending these, in fact we believe they enjoy them as much as the men. The Gray Ladies have also helped bring an hour's cheer by attending most regularly group who came down reported a happy day. There were two cardlads. They visited the shops and later attended the birthday party in the afternoon. This is a monthly event, a party being held for all those having birthdays in that month.

On Monday evening at 7:30 the Junior auxiliary will hold its regular meeting. All daughters of veterans are most cordially invited to attend. This group is as yet a "baby" and yet a most lusty and interesting one. Their work coincides with that of the senior group. They have proven a helping hand to all auxiliaries wherever they have been formed. Portland has received national honors for their outstanding program of activities. This need not be heavy, for all the group is yet attending school. It does give opportunity for girls to do social service acts and we believe helps the girl as well as the senior group and those less fortunate. They also carry on an extensive patriotic program. This year as before, there are to be prizes for Americanism essays and Eddie Cantor gives $4000 for the best oration presented. These will be sponsored by the auxiliary and post this year.

For a worthwhile evening come to the Christmas party Tuesday night at 8:00 at the armory.
