Hard Luck Champ

News-Review Photo and Engraving
 George Bonebrake, Dixonville, above, winner of the grand championship in the dressed birds division at the turkey show, claims to be the hard luck champion. His victory would afford him an opportunity to sell thousands of dollars worth of breeding stock—if he had the stock. He sold off all his surplus, however, prior to the show.

"NO OTHER PLACE COULD DO IT!"

—And Mr. A. A. Yoder of "America's oldest and largest" turkey magazine should know.

Right conditions for the birds, and the free spirit of the people make a happy combination that has brought to Oakland the BEST turkeys and the BIGGEST turkey show in the world—INDISPUTABLY.

FOR THE TWELFTH TIME this bank congratulates the community of Oakland on the BIGGEST AND BEST show of them all.
