TURKEY DINNER IS ENJOYED AT FATE HOME

MYRTLE CREEK, Dec. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Remick Fate entertained in their home with a potluck turkey dinner at 1 o'clock, Thursday, Dec. 19th, in honor of their nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leston R. Fate and son, Major Robert, of Bloomfield, New Jersey.

They came from the east two weeks ago and had been visiting Mrs. Fate's relatives in Albany, Ore., arriving here Tuesday.

Mr. Fate has been in the U. S. department of agriculture in the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine. He has had as much as 400 men working under him in the beetle and pest control in the forests. This is his first vacation since he entered the government service, twelve years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fate are leaving the first of the week for El Paso, Texas, where he has an appointment as first lieutenant in an anti-aircraft regiment. He will remain there one year when he will be sent to Washington, D. C., where he will remain just long enough to muster in when the troops will return to El Paso.

The dinner was served picnic style from two long tables on which the food, silverware and plates were placed, in the dining room. One of the tables has been in the Fate family for the past seventy-three years, being made by hand from maple which grew on the homestead.

The relatives and friends present were: Mr. and Mrs. Remick Fate, host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Leston R. Fate and son, Major Robert, guests of honor; Mr. and Mrs. David Fate and daughter, Ruth Theodosia; and Mary Ann, Henry Fate and Frank Fate from Days Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Riddle and Mrs. May Fate, Riddle; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bonebrake, Roseburg; Mrs. Etta Shaw, Mrs. Mary Jacques and Mrs. A. C. Duncan, Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer, Mrs. Ruby Dyer, Miss Grace Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Buell and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dailey, Myrtle Creek.

WOMAN'S STUDY CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

YONCALLA, Dec. 24.—The Yoncalla Woman's Study club held their annual Christmas party Friday afternoon in the Epworth hall of the Methodist church. The hall was beautifully decorated with boughs of fir and poinsettias. A beautifully decorated tree was the main decoration. The social committee, composed of Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, chairman, Mrs. Harvey Cokeram, Mrs. Sam Walkinshaw, Mrs. Hugh Warner, Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston and Mrs. Earl Brant, planned and served a delicious dinner at one o'clock.

Following the dinner a very interesting program was given. Group singing preceded a paper given by Mrs. Evelyn Rice on the history and origin of Christmas. Mrs. Sherman Chapman's paper on description of Christmas in South American countries, and Mrs. Leslie Chapman's paper on history and celebration of Christmas in Mexico was very interesting. Mrs. Mulkey furnished music for the program.

The club presented Mrs. Leona Merk with a beautiful leather manuscript holder to show their appreciation for her twenty years of faithful work as secretary of the club. Gifts were exchanged, and Christmas wishes extended to the following guests, Mrs. Art Rychard, Mrs. Emmitt Churchill, Mrs. Fred Merk, Mrs. Elaine Hovey and Mrs. Henry Payne, and the following members, Mrs. Earl Brant, Mrs. Lillis Brown, Mrs. Harvey Cokeram, Mrs. Sherman Chapman, Mrs. Leslie Chapman, Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. Ervin Rice, Mrs. Edgar Richards, Mrs. Earl Strong, Mrs. Sam Walkinshaw, Mrs. Leslie Miller and Mrs. Leona Merk.

The awarding of the Study club chest took place Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Nellie Williams won the chest, Miss Judith Brown the rug and Mrs. Chad Daugherty the table cloth.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY ENJOYED

YONCALLA, Dec. 24.—The annual Christmas party of the Willing Workers club of Scotts Valley was held Thursday afternoon. A large, beautifully decorated Christmas tree held gifts for all present. A delicious lunch was served to the following: Mrs. Clarence McKern, Mrs. Lee Cooley, Mrs. Golvanni, Mrs. Lloyd Wise, Mrs. Minor Applegate, Mrs. Linn Taylor, Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. North Woodman, Mrs. Ina Wheeler, Mrs. Harold Turpin, Mrs. Percy Applegate, Mrs. Tom Wallace, Mrs. Joe Cellars, Mrs. Henry Wells, Mrs. Lester Wells, Mrs. Bartwell, Mrs. Archie Damon, Mrs. Calvin Johnston, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Emma Jackson, Mrs. Erma Jackson, Mrs. Monte Spaulding and Mrs. Thomas Watson.

P.N.G. CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

RIDDLE, Dec. 24.—The P.N.G. club of Relief Rebekah lodge, No. 185, sponsored a Christmas party Saturday evening, Dec. 21st, at the lodge hall. Rebekahs and their families were invited and about fifty attended the event. A chicken supper was served at 7 o'clock. Little Donald Lawrence sang several songs for the crowd while they were seated at supper. Following the supper a program was given in the lodge hall which was beautifully decorated with Christmas trees and greenery. A gift exchange was held, also gifts from the Polyantha club distributed. Mrs. Worthington furnished a treat of pop corn balls for the crowd.

NEW OFFICERS PRESIDE AT MEETING

MYRTLE CREEK, Dec. 24.—Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 18, held their first regular meeting with their new officers, Wednesday evening in the Odd Fellows hall.

The meeting was presided over by the new queen, Pat Ball. Under the order of business committees were appointed for the year. Also a report was given of the dance held in Riddle.

The social hour consisted of a short program in keeping with the Christmas spirit, following which refreshments were served at a beautifully decorated table where each one was favored with a gift, the names having previously been drawn by the members.

MELVIN T. SMITH AND EDNA T. WARD MARRY ON SUNDAY

Melvin T. Smith and Edna T. Ward were quietly married Sunday, December 22nd, at one o'clock at the Baptist parsonage with Rev. H. P. Sence performing the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nelson, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Coquille, where the former is employed.

POET'S CORNER

TRANSFORMATION

By ALDEN HARNESSE
They reviled her, Judah's wayward daughter,
Half-veiled in glory of her hair.
In the sand wrote Jesus as they brought her
And accused her before Him there.

To them He said, "Let him who is blamed
Come forward and cast the first stone."
Then they left her with Him and the tangleless,
The passion-desire, was overthrown.

Then discomfort in the wiles she wielded
And in the life she lived for gain
Made her loathe content in sin
Which yielded
To an increasing sense of pain.

His awareness of divine Perfection,
Removing evil and its blight,
Brought forth in her the true reflection
Of eternal Spirit's fadeless light.
As she felt the touch of liberation,
Her impurity forever fled,
She beheld immortal Mind's creation,
Peace with his halo crowned her head.

Riddle Youth on Mend From Auto Crash Hurts

RIDDLE, Ore., Dec. 21.—Owen Willis, son of Mrs. Dora Willis, Riddle, is reported to be making satisfactory recovery from injuries suffered recently in an automobile accident at Glendale.

Willis was hurt when the car in which he was riding with a companion skidded off the road and crashed into a power pole. He was taken to the Grants Pass hospital, where he was found to be suffering from a skull fracture and wrenched back. His condition was critical for several hours as a result of shock, but his recovery now is anticipated.

Lighting Contest Here Attracting Much Attention

Much interest is being shown this year in the outdoor Christmas lighting contest sponsored by the Roseburg Lions club. The annual trophy, a silver cup, now is on display at Harth's Toggery, and will be awarded about Jan. 1. The award will be made by a secret committee, the membership of which is not known even by members of the club. Neither will the time of the judging be announced, it is reported.

Persons closely in touch with the contest anticipate a difficult task this year in deciding upon the winning outdoor display.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Miceli, winners last year, have a very extensive showing this year. The Chester Morgan home in Laurelwood and the A. G. Flegel home in North Roseburg are attracting great attention, as well as the homes of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Stewart and dozens of others. Others events of the past year and anticipate trends of the coming year.
