NUMEROUS CHRISTMAS AFFAIRS ENJOYED IN DAYS CREEK VICINITY

DAYS CREEK, Jan. 2—The Christmas season was fittingly opened at Days Creek by a well-attended and well-attended opera, "On Christmas Hill," given Friday evening, December 20, at the school home. The various parts were portrayed by pupils from the grade school while off-stage singing was done by the high school students. The program was opened by a recitation by Wade Worthington, Jr., and following the opera, a Santa Claus appeared and dispersed candy, nuts and oranges to all the children present.

Many Christmas dinners were enjoyed throughout the neighborhood, a number of them being family reunions as well as the usual seasonal gatherings.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Ulam and their sons, Clay and Lynn, had as their guests at a delicious dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ulam, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ulam and son, Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moschard of Hiddle and Mr. and Mrs. Vint Weaver of Myrtle Creek.

At the John Raehor home a most pleasant family dinner was enjoyed. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richardson of Loraine, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rogers and family of Oakridge, Glenn Raehor of Tennant, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Odle and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Raehor and their son Jarold.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Snyder were hosts at a delicious turkey dinner followed by the distribution of gifts from a beautifully decorated tree. Those present were Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kluzie had as their guests for the holiday, Mrs. Kluzie's sister, Mrs. Jane Locke and her son, Wendell, of Myrtle Creek.

MRS. R. A. MOORE ENTERTAINS SOUTH UMPQUA LADIES CLUB

DAYS CREEK, Jan. 2—The home of Mrs. Pete Ulam was the scene of a most charming pre-Christmas party the afternoon of December 18, when Mrs. R. A. Moore entertained the members of the South Umpqua ladies club and their guests. Mrs. John Ferguson, club president, presided at the short business meeting during which a report on the recently held bazaar was given. Plans were discussed for a similar affair to be held next fall. It was voted to set aside money for a 4-H scholarship fund from funds now in the treasury and to raise further scholarship money later in the year. The president reported that the linoleum needed for covering the new tables for the school dining room had been ordered as well as the paint to be used in the kitchen woodwork and the tables. It is hoped that the painting may be done during the Christmas vacation. Following the business meeting gifts were exchanged and each one present received an added Christmas favor. Late in the afternoon the hostess assisted by Mrs. Ulam, Mrs. Gordon Clark and Miss Nettie Moore served delicious refreshments.

Those attending were Mrs. Clarence Miller and daughters, Carolyn and Patty, Mrs. Wade Worthington, Mrs. Maggie Snyder, Mrs. Raymond Spore, Mrs. Dick Mesick, Mrs. Roy Duncan, Mrs. Don Snyder and son, Warren, Mrs. N. N. Wood, Mrs. Gordon Clark and daughter, Sharon, Mrs. Irvin Mather, Mrs. Jess Smith, Mrs. Walter Hutchinson, Mrs. Fritz Snyder, Mrs. Ivan Welch, Mrs. Pete Ulam, Mrs. John Ferguson, Miss Nettie Moore, Miss Marjorie Church and the hostess, Mrs. Moore. Mrs. Wood won the club prize for the month.

The rooms of the Ulam home were most attractively decorated to carry out the Christmas motif. A very lovely Christmas tree graced the living room while the serving table in the dining room was centered by a low bowl of firethorn and mistletoe surrounded by sprays of cedar and flanked by red tapers in low white holders.

Mrs. Clarence Miller has invited the club to meet at her home on the Days Creek-Canyonville road the afternoon of Wednesday, January 15. All the ladies of the neighborhood are most cordially invited to attend.

MISS RUSSELL WEBS MR. MANLEY DEC. 25

DAYS CREEK, Jan. 2—Virginia Russell of Roseburg and Earl Manley of Canyonville were united in marriage at a quiet ceremony performed Christmas morning at the T. L. Weaver home, Justice Weaver officiating. Only the necessary witnesses were present. Both Mr. and Mrs. Manley are well known and popular members of the young set. The bride has been employed at the Airport cafe in Canyonville for the past several months while Mr. Manley has made Canyonville his home since childhood.
