DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Nothing would impress the world more than for Christians to show real loyalty to the Church of Jesus Christ. The church should have the first place in our hearts, the highest place in our minds, the principal place in our activities. We wrong the church if we deny her the first place. To the Church of Christ we owe our zeal, our benevolence and our prayer. When we neglect its services, we injure its good name, we lessen its power, we discourage its members and we chill our own souls. Her unity, peace, and progress should concern our lives, we have solemnly promised in the sight of God and men to advance its interests by our faithful attendance, by reading the Holy Bible, by never neglecting its ordinances, by contributing to its support, by meeting with our fellow members, and joining with them in prayer and praise and service. It would be a poor preparation for my first Sunday in heaven to have slighted the church my last Sunday on earth. We know that we are growing in grace when we are growing in the spirit of obedience and loyalty to the Church of Jesus Christ. "Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you. Amen."

suppose he'd admit that I'm domestic."

"After dinner, they went out to a movie. Martha hung back in the darkness of the aisle so that Suzanne could sit next to Paul. She thought, triumphantly, "I'm so tactful! I hope Sue appreciates it."

But then, the figures on the screen became blurred. Having Paul and Suzanne for dinner had not chased the ghosts out of the apartment at all. It had simply reminded her of those other dinners, when Bill was home. She wondered, achingly, what her husband was doing now at that reception station. Was he lying somewhere on a cot, in a tent perhaps? Was he thinking of her? It was—she tried to look at her wrist-watch, but it was too dark—it must be 10:30. Did soldiers have to turn in early?

Paul leaned across Suzanne. "What's the matter, Martha?" "Nothing." She gave her attention, determinedly, to the blond tanned on the screen, who was whirling through the mad motions of a very torrid rumba. (To be continued)

Hangar, Two Planes Prey Of Flames at Salt Lake

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 13.—(AP)—United Air lines officials today awaited the cooling of molten metal to determine the extent of damage caused when the company's main hangar burned at the Salt Lake municipal airport, destroyed two planes which originally cost $155,000 and injured two employees.
