

News of Douglas County

Camas Valley

CAMAS VALLEY, Jan. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoar and small daughter and Ernest Hoar came home from Portland Friday after spending the holidays there with relatives.

Bernard Denn is quite ill at Mercy hospital. A. W. Geller took him to the hospital Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Denn took their two daughters, Patty and Phyllis, to Roseburg Sunday to take the bus to Medford where they attend the Catholic school. All three visited Mr. Denn at the hospital before the girls left for Medford. They had spent the two weeks' holiday vacation here with their parents.

Vina Baldwin returned to the school for the blind at Salem the last of the week, after spending the holidays here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martindale returned Friday from North Bend where they had been for the past several days receiving medical aid. Both Mr. and Mrs. Martindale were very ill with flu before Christmas and did not recover satisfactorily.

S. H. Croy has returned from a holiday visit with his daughters in Marshfield.

Mrs. T. G. Lawson and son, Donald, came home Friday from a week's visit in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Gail Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Skina. Mr. and Mrs. Gail Lawson spent Christmas at the Lawson home here.

Miss Esther Brown has returned to her school work in Medford after spending the holidays at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ethel Brown.

R. W. Dick and son, Mark, spent the week-end visiting relatives at Alleghany and Fairview, returning home Monday. Mark had a two weeks' furlough from his military duties at Fort Lewis. Others of the Dick family who spent a part of the holiday vacation at the R. W. Dick home were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Coates and daughter Helen, of Alleghany; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dick and daughter, Jerrine Ellen, and Bruce Dick of Scottsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Dick of Bend.

Fred Lange is back in the valley living at the home place. Mrs. Charles Crouch and daughter, Phyllis, returned the last of the week from a two weeks' visit with their son and brother, Melvin Crouch, and other relatives at Oakland and other California towns.

Roy Vanderhoff of Gold mountain spent a few days in the valley greeting old friends during the holidays.

Howard Brown is varding out piling with a Caterpillar tractor across the highway from the W. H. Eckles place. Piling is also being taken out near the C. W. Perry place.

The county bridge crew is repairing the bridge near Dan Smith's place. The road was closed to traffic Saturday but was opened again the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eckles have been quite ill with flu for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown spent Saturday at coast points.

Miss Cora Ellen Markham is visiting her brother, Jack Markham, and friends in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. White and daughter, Vilma, left last week for their home in Nebraska. They had been visiting in Washington and later here since the first of November. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer White, went to Nebraska at the elder Whites did and will visit

Yoncalla

YONCALLA, Jan. 14.—Mrs. H. Wheeler is taking care of Mrs. J. G. Radabaugh, who is seriously ill in Goshen.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, of Port Orford, spent several days this week here visiting their daughter and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Brittain. Mrs. Brittain accompanied them home for a short visit while her husband was attending a conference meeting elsewhere.

Word has been received from Hood River that Mr. and Mrs. Burton former pastors of the Calvary tabernacle, Yoncalla, are being congratulated on the arrival of a daughter, born New Years day.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howard and son, Earl, spent several days this week in Eddyville.

Mrs. Eva Geider is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Ramer in Coquille, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, who have been visiting at the A. H. Patrick home over the holidays, left Thursday for Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Hickman and Owen Davis returned home last week from a four-months visit with relatives in Nebraska.

Sid Woodward is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Bessie Ford in Newport for a couple of weeks.

Roseburg visitors Friday from Yoncalla were Mrs. Wilbur Briner and daughter, Mrs. Melvin Howard, Mr. and Mrs. George Edes, Mrs. John Kruse, Mrs. Fred Kruse, Henry Byron, Jimmie Howard, Tommy Palmer, Alton West, Herman Schoaso, Cleve Ambrose, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson and Bob Roberts.

Mrs. Phillip Herman and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Carner of Grants Pass spent Thursday visiting at the H. L. Stonaker home.

Gus Peret returned home Saturday after taking a short business trip to Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Estes visited relatives in Cottage Grove Wednesday.

Orville Lindsey returned to his home in Roseburg Tuesday after spending several months here visiting at the Nettie Hanan home and working at mill work.

The adult manual training class will hold its first meeting Monday evening, January 20th in the home economics room of Y.H.S. The school board has given permission to use the manual training room and Paul Campbell has been secured as instructor. The first two lessons will be drafting, after which actual work on projects will begin. There are still three vacancies in the class, and any one interested is invited to see Prof. Marsh at once.

Word has been received from Rogue River that Kenneth Toner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Toner of Yoncalla, has been elected as principal of the Rogue River high school. Mr. Toner was chosen over the heads of 25 applicants. Raphael Toner, who has been teaching near Portland will take over the position at Palsey left vacant by his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young were in Roseburg Monday. Miss Young, who has been ill for some time received medical treatment.

Walter Hutchinson has been having an attack of flu.

Dan Bollenbaugh has gone to Goshen to visit his brother.

Emmett Moyer is in Reedsport this week where he is hauling gravel for repair work on the county road.

Mrs. Marjorie Beals has been having a serious attack of sore throat. She received medical treatment at Myrtle Creek several days ago and is now able to be back to work.

Ralph and Joel Hoskins and Clarence Moore are busy repairing a donkey which is to be installed on the Marion Perdue place up Days creek for the purpose of yarding out logs for the local sawmill.

Ray Bartley has been in Portland attending to business matters for the past several days.

Mrs. Perry De Voe of Days Creek visited at the Emmett Moyer home Tuesday afternoon.

John Landers of Rogue River and Miss Loraine Harrel of Grants Pass visited at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Corda Neuswanger Monday evening.

Mrs. Joel Hoskins and small son are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hoskin's mother, Mrs. Adie Smith of Butte Falls.

Harold March of Drew was an over night guest at the Walter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Canyonville

CANYONVILLE, Jan. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund, Mrs. Emma Wamsley, Mrs. Harriet Fickett and son, Charles, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lijja Sunday.

Hubert Garey suffered a knee injury some time ago while playing football. It did not appear so serious, however, until some time later. An examination by Dr. Hess of Roseburg a few days ago disclosed a cracked bone under the knee cap which made it necessary to place his leg in a cast.

Elbert Naas became ill Tuesday and returned to his home at Myrtle Creek. Mrs. Ralph Hoskins has been assisting in the store during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young were in Roseburg Monday. Miss Young, who has been ill for some time received medical treatment.

Walter Hutchinson has been having an attack of flu.

Dan Bollenbaugh has gone to Goshen to visit his brother.

Emmett Moyer is in Reedsport this week where he is hauling gravel for repair work on the county road.

Mrs. Marjorie Beals has been having a serious attack of sore throat. She received medical treatment at Myrtle Creek several days ago and is now able to be back to work.

Ralph and Joel Hoskins and Clarence Moore are busy repairing a donkey which is to be installed on the Marion Perdue place up Days creek for the purpose of yarding out logs for the local sawmill.

Ray Bartley has been in Portland attending to business matters for the past several days.

Mrs. Perry De Voe of Days Creek visited at the Emmett Moyer home Tuesday afternoon.

John Landers of Rogue River and Miss Loraine Harrel of Grants Pass visited at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Corda Neuswanger Monday evening.

Mrs. Joel Hoskins and small son are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hoskin's mother, Mrs. Adie Smith of Butte Falls.

Harold March of Drew was an over night guest at the Walter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

Hartfiel Heads Douglas Drive In 'March of Dimes'

Appointment of Attorney Thomas C. Hartfiel of Roseburg as Douglas county chairman for the Oregon state 1941 drive against infantile paralysis has been announced by Dr. E. T. Hedlund, of Portland, state chairman.

The drive, in honor of President Roosevelt's birthday, Jan. 30, already is getting under way, according to reports from state headquarters. Numerous events to raise funds for the "March of Dimes" have been planned, including parties, sports events, and birthday balls. Residents of the state also are being urged to send 10-cent pieces directly to the president at the white house, or to remit them through local headquarters.

One-half of the funds raised during the campaign remain in the communities in which they are collected and the other half is forwarded to the national foundation for infantile paralysis research.

Tenmile

TENMILE, Jan. 14.—Those from Tenmile to attend the poultry school held in Roseburg Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coats, L. M. McCaffrey and J. M. Cabot.

Bobbie and Virginia Larsen of Salem are staying with their grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Rathkey, and attending school in Tenmile, due to their father's illness in Salem.

Herbert Crowley was a business caller in Roseburg Thursday.

The ladies of the Community club sent four quilts to the "Bundles for Britain" last Wednesday.

Mrs. Nellie Henry and Mrs. L.

ter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

Harold March of Drew was an over night guest at the Walter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

With Major Hoopie

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

Harold March of Drew was an over night guest at the Walter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

Harold March of Drew was an over night guest at the Walter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

With Major Hoopie

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

Harold March of Drew was an over night guest at the Walter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

Harold March of Drew was an over night guest at the Walter Pelham home Saturday. Lauren James had the misfortune of running a nail in his foot Friday. Complications resulted which made it necessary for him to go to Myrtle Creek for medical treatment Monday.

The Dick Steele family has recently received work from Mr. Steele that he has found an excellent location for a barber shop at Willamette City and that he expects to open a shop there instead of working at Eugene as he had previously planned. He will return home in a few days to complete arrangements for transferring their household goods to their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartley and family were shopping in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ecklund visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ecklund's brother, J. A. J. Youm, of Myrtle Creek. Mr. Youm has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Albert Romburg and daughter, Elinor, have been confined to their home during the past few days with severe colds.

Lester Spencer returned home from Sutherlin Saturday where he has been visiting at the home of his grandmother.

Mrs. Bradford Wynter and Mrs. Barbara Hopkins were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

Ronald Loffer returned to Portland Saturday to continue his barber training.

Mrs. Harriett Pardee returned Saturday to North Bend after visiting here with friends and relatives during the past week.

Erl Manley has entered a diesel school in Portland. Mrs. Manley, who has been assisting at the Airport cafe during the past two weeks, expects to join him in the near future.

Miss May Gross and Mrs. Colingwood of Myrtle Creek and Miss Marjorie Church of Days Creek were dinner guests at the Guy McGee home Monday, Jan. 6.

Mr. McCaffrey were shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Wednesday.

Eldred Rathkey has returned to school at Salem after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rathkey.

Gene Rowell, a former resident of Tenmile, has purchased a filling station in Camas Valley.

Glen Coats was employed a few days in Roseburg packing turkeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Breitenbacher were shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Wednesday.

Little Mary Ann Cabot is able to be out again after being confined to her home for several days last week due to a severe sore throat.

L. M. McCaffrey butchered two pigs last Tuesday for their winter meat.

Mr. and Mrs. James Divine of Olalla spent Friday evening visiting with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McCaffrey, and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served by the hosts.

Chester Backman is employed at the Jim Henry farm.

Mrs. Bessie Smith was confined to her home several days last week due to the flu.

Mrs. Edna Albro and son, Chauncey, attended to business matters in Roseburg the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams are living at the Folze brothers sawmill, where Mr. Williams is employed. Mrs. Williams will be remembered as Miss Emma Woodard of Tenmile.