POET'S CORNER

TO MY COUNTRY

By ALDEN HARNNESS
From peace-beliefs at this momentous hour,
When evil would attain controlling power,
Awake! Awake! My country, oh! awake
To dangers, which increase from sea to sea,
And now surround and ever menace thee
With forms of bondage we can never break.

If for England far more weapons are not made
And not more promptly to her ports conveyed,
Will she be able to withstand
The axis armies which may fight and fight
Till oppression brings an endless night
To all mankind in every land?

Defeat may come to England in this war.
With greater speed and skill prepare to bar
Her foes from thy frontiers, before too late.

Produce vast armament to fight alone.
Least the fate of nations, they have overthrown
And exploited, shall become thy fate.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed and the hostess served refreshments at the tea hour. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lee Barker January 23.

MARKET REPORTS

WOOL

BOSTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "There is a continuing fair interest in foreign fine and half-blood wools, at prices which are fully firm; especially on South Americans on which replacement costs are a bit dearer. Buying commercially in Australia is freer, since the wool central committee has made all descriptions including 60s and above and some crossbreds available to this country. Further buying is reported, also, in South Africa for this country.

"Imports are very heavy this week amounting to about 30 million pounds of which 20 millions are apparel wools.

"Rather more interest in men's wear is reported in the goods market, possibly in anticipation of the formal opening of the heavyweight season.

"In the far west, it is estimated that between 4 and 5 million pounds of wool have been contracted, chiefly in Nevada, Utah and the west slope of Colorado at 30 to 31¢ cents.

Mohair is quiet and hardly changed."

Budget Near World War High

President Roosevelt's $17,485,528,049 budget is second highest in U. S. history, being topped only by the war year 1918-19, as shown in top chart. Center chart shows how 61 per cent of the new budget goes to defense, and compares principal expenditures with those of the current fiscal year. The new budget would create a deficit raising the public debt to an estimated 58 billion. To take care of this, the debt limit, already boosted from 45 to 49 billion, would have to be changed again or removed entirely by congress.

Lindbergh Still Anti-War But Not With Committee

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said today that while he had "attempted to cooperate with all American organizations opposed to our entering the war in Europe" he had no connection with the No Foreign War committee. His statement, telegraphed to the Associated Press from Huntington, Long Island, follows: "I wish to state that while I have attempted to co-operate with all American organizations opposed to our entering the war in Europe, I have no connection with the No Foreign War committee. Shortly after the no foreign war campaign was launched in Washington, I agreed to speak at an opening meeting in St. Louis providing certain conditions were met. These conditions were not met, and since that time the no foreign war campaign has undergone reorganization. "I attended a number of conferences when its successor, the No Foreign War committee, was being formed, but found myself unable to support the methods and policies adopted by the new organization. I have at no time been a member of the committee, nor have I contributed to its financial support. My belief that it would be disastrous for this country to enter the war remains unchanged, and I intend to continue the stand I have taken against our participation."
