

Surgeon Claims He Can Build "Tiger" Army With Diet

FORT LEWIS, Wash., Jan. 22. (AP)—A U. S. army surgeon predicted today that he could hand-pick raw army recruits and create a force of "super-men" by scientific dietetic supervision in the mess hall.

Should they lose their weapons and the shirts off their backs, the "tiger" in them would make the men into a battering, bare-fisted brigade.

Col. Albert P. Clark, head of the Fort Lewis base hospital, is the nutrition authority who paraphrased the Napoleonic precept to the interpretation: "An army fights on its stomach."

"If I had the opportunity to personally select 5,000 men from the 48,000 we expect to have in this area by spring, and feed them a specially prepared diet which included increased mineral and vitamin content, I would have a small army of unbeatable men within six months," said the colonel, who is the surgeon in charge of the entire 3rd and 41st divisions at Fort Lewis and Camp Murray.

"They would be super-men—men that would fight with rocks and their bare fists if they lost their weapons. They would be a superior type of shock troops, which seem to be so successful in modern winning armies."

"Hopped up" only through an improved diet, the troops would be as superior mentally as physically, the colonel prophesied, and they would be capable of acting successfully alone as well as in a group.

Colonel Clark said most drafted men benefited from the army diet, but that there has been no attempt to stress experimentally the potency potential of rations concentrating on vitamins, calcium and other minerals.

G.O.P. Spends Far More Than Dems in Campaign

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Republican political organizations were credited with spending nearly $15,000,000 last year and their democratic rivals slightly more than $6,000,000, in a report approved today by the special senate committee investigating campaign expenses.
