Marry In Yakima, Washington, Jan 11

Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Clement.

Of much interest here is the wedding of Miss Audrey McEachern, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McEachern, of Roseburg, and Lucian Monroe Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Clement, of Medford, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Beulah Teal, in Yakima, Wash., Saturday, January 11. Rev. D. W. Perry, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, read the impressive service at three o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of relatives of the couple.

The bride was charming in an afternoon frock of blue and she wore a corsage of orchids and tiny rosebuds. Her cousin, Miss Dorothy Dean, of Seattle, was maid of honor and wore an attractive new spring model of aqua blue, with a corsage of orchids. Stanley Dean, of Tacoma, also a cousin of the bride, acted as best man. The bride's mother wore an attractive ensemble of dark blue with a corsage of orchids. A beautiful setting of palms, ferns and white cathedral candles formed an impressive background and setting for the ceremony.

Upon their return from their honeymoon, they will reside at Wellings Court on Fifteenth street in Portland.

The bride, who is one of Roseburg's most attractive young ladies, was graduated from the local high school and later went to Medford to work for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Mr. Clement, who was formerly employed by the Copco in Medford, is now employed by the Pacific Telephone company with headquarters in Portland.

Members of the Roseburg Junior Woman's club enjoyed an interesting meeting at the Woman's clubhouse Monday evening, January 20, when their advisor, Mrs. Glenn Wimberly gave an informal talk on "Gardens."

A leader in gardening in this city Mrs. Wimberly touched briefly on the necessity of gardens as a means of self-expression and suggested various books in the Roseburg public library as a means of solving garden problems.

She opened her talk by remarking that healthy children, comfortable homes and beautiful gardens are dependent on the American woman for success. The gardens, Mrs. Wimberly said should express the owner's personality and the informality of gardens is a successful key to social affairs. Through the exchange of plantings much enjoyment is derived and also through gardening the modern woman can achieve many physical benefits. As a closing point she touched on the fact that the benefits derived from sharing the flowers are enough to compensate for the time and work expended in the garden by bringing happiness to others.

The Junior club is anticipating the visit of Mrs. Harold D. Peterson, of Dallas, president of the Oregon Federation of Woman's clubs, who will be in Roseburg the first week in February. Present plans call for a dinner for Mrs. Peterson which will be open to all club members, to be followed by the birthday party and club shower at the clubhouse. Mrs. Ralph Herman is general chairman for the affair.

An announcement was made that the fine arts group will continue its discussion of English poetry at the home of Mrs. Sidney Domenico in Ramona court Wednesday evening, January 29. All interested members were invited to attend.
