American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. WALTER FISHER

Our motto—We honor the dead by serving the living.

Spotlighting the week's activities of Umpqua unit will be the large benefit bridge party which will be held Friday evening, February 7, at eight o'clock at the K. of P. hall. Mrs. J. A. Harding, chairman of the finance committee, has announced the following assistants: Mrs. George Wharton and Mrs. L. W. Josse, joint chairmen, aided by Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. H. T. Hansen, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Broadway, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. E. F. Tandy, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Miss Pearl Jones, Mrs. Ward Cummings, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly and Mrs. V. J. Micelli. Mrs. Harding has announced that proceeds from the party will be used to further the child welfare program of the American Legion and its auxiliary, for hospital aid and community service. Mrs. Harding has asked that those wishing to make reservations for the party call Mrs. Broadway at 12-Y or Mrs. Josse at 357-R.

Everyone who attended the installation of the Drain post and unit last Saturday night, reports a gorgeous time. It seems that the Drain friends did the thing up in magnificent style topped off by refreshments that are still the talk of the Roseburg visitors. Mrs. Vivian Meiring, of Medford, district president, presented the charter to the Drain unit and Mrs. Laura Goode, department president, served as installing officer. Guiding the destinies of the Drain unit for the ensuing year will be president, Marguerite LaGrandier; vice-president, Lena Bossen; secretary, Jessie Porter; treasurer, Veve Olson; historian, Eeva Leison; chaplain, Kathryn Fenley. Our best wishes go with them.

Our peppy little juniors are entertaining at a party for all eligible members on Monday night in the chapter rooms at the armory. To be a member of the American Legion auxiliary is a badge of honor and these youngsters are taking their obligations with proper seriousness and dignity. For Monday evening, dignity will be soft-pedaled and there will be plenty of ice cream and cake for all.

Tuesday night at 5:30, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Americanization chairman, is presenting Rev. Perry Smith, in a patriotic address over KRNR. "Perry," who has served repeatedly as chaplain of Umpqua post, always leaves his listeners with something to cogitate over, and the address Tuesday evening, we understand, comes under the heading of extra special.

Mrs. Claude Baker, unit president, is urging all auxiliary and Legion members to attend the regular meeting Tuesday night at eight o'clock both to participate in the business sessions and the social hour which will be enjoyed later by both groups. Plans to visit Days Creek, where the post and unit have many valuable members, on the 18th will be made at this meeting.

All units of the American Legion auxiliary are being urged by Mrs. Louis Lemstra, national president, to join the first aid classes being conducted over the United States by the Red Cross. A class is being formed in Roseburg next Wednesday night and all interested persons are being urged by the auxiliary to participate. It is felt by our organization that this is one of the potent avenues to adequate national defense.

The monthly card party given by the auxiliary at the veterans' facility Wednesday night was an enormous success. Every table was taken—there were lots of prizes—and assorted candies with plenty of gumdrops for refreshments. We were proud to be at a table where a prize was awarded—but not to us. Mrs. Irving Riegel and Mrs. Walter Olmsheid served as joint hostesses of the affair.

Before we sign off—head your calendar of activities with the benefit card party at the K. of P.

POET'S CORNER

BY THE SPRING

The green leaves of mint
By the spring,
Their cooling fragrance
Widely fling.

And dragon flies
Dip and taste,
And start small ripples
In needless haste.

Soft waving mint
By the shaded spring,
Down whose sides
Their white roots cling.

A swaying willow,
The mint covered ground,
A cool little spring
That someone found.
