

Oregon Hoopsters Post 57-35 Victory Over Washington

By the Associated Press
Any hopes the Washington Huskies had retained of winning this year's northern division, Pacific Coast conference basketball championship were given a terrific jolt last night when the Oregon Webfoots scored a 57-35 victory in Eugene. It was the Huskies' third consecutive defeat.

The defeat put the Huskies in a second place tie with the Oregon State Beavers behind the Washington State Cougars.

Vic Townsend, Webfoot forward, was the scoring leader, registering 18 points. Bill Borchert, Oregon center-forward, played an important part in the triumph with his work under the backboards.

The squads meet again tonight, rowing.

The towering Webfoots, especially Borchert, who played both center and forward, used their height to every advantage and flashed the kind of form that made them pre-season favorites to capture the northern division crown.

Ralph Fuhrman, a "sophomore surprise," made up for the absence of the injured Henry Anderson, whose unorthodox hook shot was the difference between victory and defeat for the Webfoots in several earlier games.

The 6-foot, 3-inch forward, who previously had witnessed most games from the bench, not only chalked up 12 points but combined with Borchert to give Oregon control of the backboards.

Washington got off to a slambang start, and for a time it appeared the cellar-place Webfoots might feel the sting of another defeat. However, Oregon began rolling late in the initial session and at halftime was in front, 28-19.

The second half was all Oregon's with Borchert, Fuhrman, Vic Townsend and George Andrews leading the basket barrage that kept the net swishing merrily for Webfoot partisans.

Townsend, besides being the game's high scorer with 18 points, also took over leadership of the division's individual scoring race.

Tennis Tourney Drawings Made

Drawings were completed last week for the men's table tennis tournament to be held this week at Bruton's shoe repair shop. Seventeen entries have been made for play which will begin at 7 o'clock tonight.

Four of the leading players were given the coveted seeded positions, thus giving them the opportunity of meeting in the semi-finals barring upsets. The order of the seeding was Charles Hiney, No. 1; Howard Applegate, No. 2; Ralph Church, No. 3; Leslie Miller, No. 4. The luck of the draw placed the matches as follows:

Charles Hiney vs. Plinn Lauerance, Jack Anderson vs. Gordon Harness, Ronald Parr vs. Louis Miles, Royd Bruton vs. Ralph Church, Howard Applegate vs. Shirley McLaughlin, Herbert Heinz vs. Dick Debernardi, Dick Powell vs. the winner of the Heinz-Debernardi match, Harold Cay vs. Dick John, Paul Erno vs. Leslie Miller.

Several matches will be played each evening until eliminations are completed, after which doubles will be started.
