Greece Declines U. S. Offer of Old Fighting Planes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Secretary Knox disclosed yesterday that the navy had offered to turn over 30 Grumman fighter planes to Greece, free of charge, but that the Greek minister had turned down the offer with the explanation that his country wanted new planes.

At the same time Knox revealed that arrangements had been made for China to obtain 100 American made war planes ordered in this country by Great Britain but not yet delivered.

Knox said the Chinese government had asked for 500 planes to use in her war with Japan. Under the arrangements finally worked out the British agreed to accept the deferred deliveries for 100.

Knox reported that the planes offered to Greece were now assigned to the aircraft carrier Wasp.

He described them as single-motor craft and "good for fighting as well as training."

"I would take them quickly," he commented. He did not say how old they were.

Knox also reported that in January the navy received deliveries on 296 planes, which he said was about as many as were delivered in an entire year before the current arms program started.

About one-third of the 296 were combat planes, the navy

Azalea

AZALEA, Feb. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bogue from Coyote creek visited here Sunday with Jim Booth and Mrs. Ivy Sackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Tripp and daughters, Lynn and Sally, were Sunday visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tripp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jantzer and sons, Billie and Jackie, attended to business in Grants Pass and Medford Saturday. They were over night guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jantzer at Central Point.

Amery Eastman had the misfortune of injuring his foot quite severely while employed at the Starveout Lumber company. He was taken to Grants Pass for medical care. It will be necessary for him to be on crutches for several weeks, as the bone in his foot is cracked, and several ligaments are pulled loose.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bryant from Yreka, Calif., arrived here the middle of the week and will spend several weeks at their mine on Starveout creek.

F. N. Harrell is driving a new Ford sedan.
