DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

How strange it is, and what a pity that good men and women who have received divine help and sustenance, and who have seen the power of God working in human lives, should often be lacking in discernment and so uncomprehending with regard to infinite love and care. The first little loss or sorrow, and the old fear that God has forgotten. A breath of disappointment brings doubt of God's promises. One of the often journeys of the disciples with Jesus, they forgot to take bread with them. Jesus did not chide them, but he did say: "Perceive ye not yet, nor understand?" Ye whom God has fed and clothed, helped and healed. Why reason ye? Having eyes, see ye not? Our own negligence is a persistent foe to well-being. Most of our troubles could have been avoided. They are self-inflicted. When these troubles come let us see with our eyes and hear with our ears, and understand with our hearts, that God has not forgotten to be gracious. For His promise is "Lo, I am with you always." "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie, my grace all sufficient shall be thy supply. The flame shall not hurt thee I only design. Thy cross to consume, and thy gold to refine." Amen.
