Can one doubt the ever-pres-ent help of a kind Heavenly Father who has promised His nearness? When a distressing

call for help goes up, it is a great comfort to know that the Father will hear and answer. because of this promised as-surance of His tender love. when Jesus had his trying hours, He prayed for strength, yet He said: "Not my will but thine be done." He continued to pray with conditions appar-ently unchanged, but as He poured out His longings to the Father's will, knowing the suf-fering it meant. He became aware of the nearness of this Heavenly Father. Because of a great love, His life was so united with God's life that He knew the cross was an answer to His intense prayer. Be-cause it was the only way of salvation for a lost and rulned world. In that way He-re-mained true to the purpose of doing the Father's will doing the Father's will. "Unanswered yet? Faith can
