DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

It is possible for life to do unpleasant things to us. It sometimes robs us of our health and of our friends. It can crush us and leave us at last broken and defeated. If it should, we are not completely forsaken. First, there are unused and often unrealized resources within ourselves. When the hour strikes we are much stronger and braver than we ever dreamed we were. The increased strain will call forth the increased power within us. Then there is always tomorrow. Things have a strange way of turning around, of working out differently than we had expected. The clouds of today may be blown away by the winds of tomorrow. And then, there is always God. Even though we do have trials and sickness and loss, we have the promise of God. "Lo I am with you." So day by day we may say God is with me. We can face all that life can bring of darkness and loneliness and even death, but we know we can never get beyond God's loving care, and this is the victory that overcomes the world. "In heavenly love abiding, no change my heart shall fear, and safe is such confiding. For nothing changes here; the storms may roar about me, my heart may low be laid, but God is round about me and can I be dismayed." Amen.

Lookingglass

LOOKINGGLASS, Feb. 20.—Mrs. A.O. Strickland left on Saturday for a two or three weeks visit with her sister in San Francisco and other relatives in that vicinity.

Don Ollivant, who has been receiving treatment at Mercy Hospital for pneumonia, has been removed to his home to convalesce.

Miss Lucile Crow spent the week end recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Crow. She is employed in the dining room of the West Fir Lumber Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Currey of Council Bluffs, Iowa are visiting the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buell and family, and other relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. Currey will be remembered by the older residents as Blanche Buell.

Leslie Buell who is teaching in the Halsey schools, visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buell over the week end.

John Rodley who has been employed at the local school, has resigned and will leave this week for Portland where he has secured employment. Fred Richard has taken over the janitor work of the school, assuming his duties on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ashford of Sweet Home spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Buckle.

Mrs. Tom Morgan who has been seriously ill for several weeks is suffering from jaundice and reported to be in a very critical condition.
