American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By LOIS BAKER

Twenty-two years ago on March 15, the American Legion was born. The local group will be feted here on that Saturday at the K. P. hall by the auxiliary women. Big plans are under way for a program of unusual interest and for birthday cake for everyone. You and you, wherever you are, be sure to make no other plans for that night. If you are a veteran come and celebrate the founding of this, your organization. Mrs. Roy Young is program chairman for the unit; Vincent Malone for the Legion. Mrs. Hubert Graham heads the "cats" committee. We are assured of plenty of food and we learn that Days Creek is coming "en masse" with a big surprise.

This same day the units throughout the nation are registering for voluntary emergency service to their communities and

LOCAL GIRL PLEDGED TO LITERARY SOCIETY

Word has been received in this city that Miss Mary Nancy Roberts, freshman at North Texas State Teachers college at Denton, Texas, was recently pledged into the Junior Mary Ardens, a girls' literary society on the campus with a limited membership.

Miss Roberts, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Roberts, 817 Pine street, is majoring in home economics at the Texas school.

JUNIOR LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET

An announcement was made Friday that the Junior American Legion auxiliary will meet Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. T. Young, 620 Cobb street. All members are urged to attend the business meeting.

You Turned the Tables On Me..

said the weary lady to the wash basket... And the washbasket replied - "It's your own fault for not sending the family wash to the laundry. Better start today!"

the nation. Auxiliary women will fill out questionnaires listing their availability for service in nursing, driving, first aid, social service, office, household and administrative work, sewing, knitting and mending. Juniors will be listed for messenger and guide service.

It is to be hoped that no such service will ever be necessary but in the event we are needed by our country the number of auxiliary members available in each form of work will be supplied to the local Red Cross chapter and to city authorities, with whom the auxiliary would cooperate in emergency. Bear the date in mind, March 15. Place of registration will be made known next week.

Wednesday of this week, Mrs. Walter Olmscheid graciously entertained the executive board, chairmen and officers at her home, for a business and social meeting. That afternoon she and Mrs. Irvin Riegel assisted the Albany unit in giving the monthly birthday party at the facility. Several cars of members came from Albany. At these parties Bingo is played, ice cream and cake, with candles lighted for each guest, is served. Every man having a birthday during that month is invited. It is most pleasing to the men to have the various units as their hostesses. Women have come from as far as Toledo and Bandon. Junction City and Eugene are often here. The American Legion auxiliary tries to make life happier for our veterans. The other veterans' groups do the same. Friday night the V. F. W. held a dance at the facility for patients.

We learned of another birthday, Anne McDermott, superintendent of nurses at the facility, and a most loved lady, will celebrate hers today. The Legion auxiliary wishes for her the best of everything. She is always giving just that to others.

As you read this there will be in progress an art exhibit worthy of everyone's attention. Local artists have painted numerous prize pictures which you will not want to miss. The exhibit may be seen all evening at the Elk's temple. Best of all, it's free. Miss Margaret Carr spent much of the summer in northern Washington observing and putting on canyons her impressions of the northern Indians in that dry, dusty country. Mrs. T. G. Watson, on her trip east, did several breath-taking scenes of Montana and the mid-west. These are very different in feeling from her former pictures and you will not want to miss these. She also won fair awards again this year.

The Rev. Mr. Wire and Mrs. Wire will show etchings, water colors and oils. Those who enjoy art will not want to miss these and the works of other artists and photographers.

Community service the auxiliary attempts to carry on all year but just now we are planting more trees on the facility drive and more at the Rose school. The swimming pool project will receive our attention soon also. A library tea will be held in the near future to enable books to be purchased for the library. Two large boxes of books were sent to a CCC camp this week. Anyone having books you would like to donate may call Mrs. Roy Young or myself. These are much appreciated by the boys for it takes only a short time for their books to be read and reread. New material is therefore welcome.

Mrs. William Horsfall of Marshfield has returned from the national defense conference held in Washington, D. C., and will hold a conference in Roseburg with all units from this end of southern Oregon the week of March 12. All service and patriotic groups are urged to keep this date in mind for we desire a joint, open house meeting with every group represented. More information will be available on this next week.
