MARGARET CARR TALKS ON "ART APPRECIATION" AT FINE ARTS MEETING

Miss Margaret Carr gave an educational talk on "Art Appreciation" for members of the Fine Arts department of the Roseburg Junior Woman's club Thursday evening at Benson school at 7 o'clock.

She touched on the fundamental necessities of a good picture, stressing line, color, value, type of painting and the artist. By means of colored slides to illustrate her talk she showed how pictures were painted not to express a story but to show the use of the above mentioned topics in forming patterns. The speaker suggested that the public study the picture to find out what is in the work rather than to study the picture because it was painted by someone of note.

Among the artists' work illustrated were Gilbert Stuart, Sargent, Homer, Whistler, Hassen, a former resident of Portland, Bellows, Picasso, Cezanne and others.

Following the discussion the group motored to Brands for a social hour. Miss Betty Shoemaker, chairman of the group, was honored with a handkerchief shower. She is leaving March 10 for Medford to take up her duties as society editor on the Medford Mail Tribune.

Enjoying the evening were Miss Elaine Brown, Miss Eleanor Eastling, Miss Lois Pounds, Mrs. Harold Hoyt, Mrs. Wm. Unrath, Mrs. James Henbest, Mrs. Ralph Rodley, Mrs. W. L. Hoyt, Miss Eleanor Fies, Mrs. Jack Chapman and Miss Betty Shoemaker.
