Captive Carries Pet Along

The Italian soldier in the foreground, one of thousands captured by the British in their whirlwind offensive against Italy's Libyan forces, doesn't look too upset by the turn of events—at least he managed to keep his pet pup. But the fellow at the right, scowling at the cameraman, doesn't seem to relish his predicament.

Army Recruiter to Be In Roseburg Tomorrow

Staff Sergeant John T. Costello of the regular army recruiting service will be in Roseburg Thursday when he will accept all qualified applicants for enlistment in the regular army, maintaining a temporary office in the post office building.

Men enlisted now may choose their preferred branch of the service from the following: GHQ air force detachment, McChord field, Washington; Hamilton field, California; and Fort Douglas, Utah; infantry; coast artillery; field artillery; various medical departments and quartermaster corps openings at several military posts of the Pacific coast.

Men who prefer foreign service can now enlist for the infantry and coast artillery, Panama canal department, and for infantry and coast artillery in the Philippine islands.

Supt. Campbell to Attend State Teachers Meeting

W. M. Campbell, city superintendent of schools, is planning to attend meetings of the Oregon State Teachers association to be held in Salem, March 14 and 15.

Mr. Campbell plans to go to Salem on the 13th to attend conferences in advance of the two-day meeting. He is secretary of the department of superintendence of O. S. T. A.

Late S. C. Lancaster Kin Of Ex-Roseburg Resident

JUST SUPPOSE!

The farmers owned the profits on everything they bought, and used those profits to buy factories and refineries. Crazy?

Not at all. Do some thinking and buy Co-op, where "YOU OWN THE PROFITS."

Idaho Basketeers Down Oregon Staters, 42 to 35

MOSCOW, March 5.—(AP)—The Idaho Vandals rose up from the depths of the Pacific coast conference cellar last night to defeat the Oregon State Beavers 42-35.

Seeking to capture some glory in the fading days of the basketball season, the Vandals broke through the Beavers' zone defense to lead at halftime 24-16.

The Beavers shifted to a man-to-man defense in the second half but were too late to top the Idaho quintet.
