POET'S CORNER

OLD HILLS FILLED WITH PATHS

I gaze across the empty hills
Where once the grain was gay,
Then turn towards the sunset
That follows each long day.

The fields once full of grain;
Old fences, like a binding,
Hold the homeward flocks
Like a river winding.

Old hills filled with paths
Old trees full of sighing,
Oh, but can we find in memory
One small excuse for crying.

G. M. LEEPER.

OVER A FIELD OF SNOW
The weary artist
Bowed his head,
While the sunset gold
Changed to darkened lead.

Changed the canvas
Quick with care,
And caught the storm—
Clouds drifting there.

Lost his weakness
Dull stunning blow,
And caught the white
And whirling snow.

Lost the beauty
Of the sunset glow,
But glimpsed the moon
Over a field of snow.

—G. M. Leeper.

"No Child of Mine will ever get WORMS!"

Don't be so sure, Mother!

Anybody, anywhere, can have roundworms! Yes, and the ugly creatures may be living inside your child right now, starting trouble without your even knowing it. If your child is pale, underweight, nervous, has an uneasy stomach, picks at food or soil—these ugly roundworms may be at work.

Play safe! Get Jayne's Vermifuge at once. It acts very gently, yet expels stubborn worms. And if no worms are there, it acts just as a mild laxative. Jayne's is America's best known proprietary worm medicine, used by millions for over a century. Beware! Jayne's Vermifuge! At all drug stores.
