Married Fifty-Five Years

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mynatt

After their marriage, they engaged in farming at Riddle and Glengary until 1912, when Mr. Mynatt built the Kelley's Korner store and engaged in business there until 1921, when he traded the property for a farm on Roberts creek. In 1923, he retired and with Mrs. Mynatt moved into Roseburg, where they have since made their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt have three children: Mrs. C. L. (Lelia) Weber, of Roberts creek; Wilmer Earl Mynatt, of Pendleton, and Mrs. Percy (Dorothy) Croft, of Roseburg. They have two grandchildren, Loren and Kathleen Weber, of Roberts creek.

Mr. Mynatt recalls many changes in this part of the country during his nearly eighty years of life. He reports that when he was a boy, that practically all road travel was by oxen. He stated that in practically every line of business, that everything was greatly changed by this day and age. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt are in good health and are able to enjoy doing the many things they like. Their large number of friends in this county extend to them best wishes for the continuation of good health and happiness.

Mr. Mynatt was the son of W. R. and Susan Mynatt, pioneers of Douglas county, who resided on a farm near Riddle. He was born July 14, 1861, and will be eighty years old his next birthday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt attended school at the Wilbur academy.

They were married at the Cooper home in Glengary, March 7, 1886. Mrs. Mynatt has three sisters and two brothers living, who attended the wedding fifty-five years ago.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulsen

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulsen celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a very enjoyable family affair Wednesday, February 20th, at their home in Coles valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulsen were both in Germany and came to the United States when very young. They were married in Slayton, Minnesota, residing there until 1901, when they moved to Oregon, locating in Coles valley, February, 1902, where they have lived for the last 39 years.

At noon a delicious turkey dinner was served. The table was centered with a beautiful anniversary cake topped with sprays of lilies of the valley and golden wedding bells.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulsen have three daughters and four sons: Mrs. Frank Plaisted, W. H. Paulsen, of Eugene; Herman Paulsen, of Eugene; Frank Paulsen, of Grants Pass; Mrs. Lillie Wood and Mrs. Ben Palm, of Roseburg, and John Paulsen, of Coles valley. They have twelve grandchildren: Marvin and Wendell Plaisted, of Alaska; Pauline Plaisted Matthews, of Lowell; Raymond Palm, of Medford; Ralph Wood, Coral, Wayne, Lloyd, Donna and Joan Plaisted, all of Eugene; Rosella Paulsen, of Grants Pass, and Glen Palm, of Roseburg. They also have one great-grandchild, Margaret Ann Wood, of Eugene. With the exception of three grandchildren, the entire family enjoyed the golden wedding celebration together at the Paulsen home. Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Paulsen in honor of the occasion.
