ROSEBURG WOMAN'S SON TO BE PRESENTED IN EASTERN DEBUT TUESDAY

Of much interest is the announcement that David Smith, Jr., 16-year-old pianist, formerly of Portland, will make a debut as soloist with the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra Tuesday evening under the baton of Eugene Goossens in Music hall, Cincinnati, playing the Chopin E minor concerto.

David was national winner of the 1940 Edgar Stillman Kelley scholarship, a National Federation of Music Clubs project. He received the award and made his radio debut December 21. A group of New York newspapermen nominated David as the outstanding American boy.

When he was 12 years old, David was soloist with the Portland symphony under the baton of Willem van Hoogstraten. He left Portland two years ago to study with Dr. Karol Liszlewski at the Cincinnati conservatory.

The symphony broadcast over the Mutual Broadcasting system will not come to Pacific coast stations.

David, who is the son of Mrs. Ruth Smith, of this city, employee in the office of Dr. Arthur H. Mountford at the veterans administration facility, is well known in Roseburg, having frequently visited here with his mother.

Demolition Bomb Called Deadliest

Pronounced "The first new thing in bombs invented in a decade" is this new demolition bomb, invented by J. Lloyd Peterson, Salt Lake City. Completely different from any aerial explosive now used, the bomb is inexpensive to manufacture and is believed to be 10 times more powerful than any now known. The inventor claims that its safety factor exceeds any present bombs, that a bombing plane heavily laden with this new type bomb could make a forced landing without danger from its cargo. It will soon be tested by Army authorities at Salt Lake.

Cameramen Pick a Photogenic Queen

Newspaper photographers often grumble about the photogenic qualities of beauty queen chosen by other people. With this in mind, the management of the annual Puyallup, Wash., Daffodil Festival this year put it squarely up to Seattle and Tacoma newspaper photographers to pick a properly photogenic queen themselves. The result—Miss Pauline Martin, 18, as queen of this year's festival.

Liquid Air Uses To be Depicted at Junior High Here

Walter Everman, scientist and entertainer, will present an unusual and interesting demonstration at Roseburg Junior high school at 2:45 p. m. Tuesday, March 11, Principal R. R. Brand announced today. The public is invited to the program, which will demonstrate uses of liquid air.

Mr. Everman will display a fine spread of laboratory equipment in his demonstration. Among the features of the exhibition will be the freezing of kerosene into a candle; freezing mercury into a hammer with which spikes may be driven into a board; shattering beefsteak, fresh flowers and a rubber ball after they are dipped into the liquid, which is one of the coldest substances known. Of special interest will be a liquid air engine, propelled by vapors produced by the evaporation of the liquid at ordinary temperatures.

The production has been filmed for Paramount's popular science releases and is highly educational as well as entertaining.

The program is sponsored by the student body which is inviting the public to attend without charge at the 2:30 assembly hour, Mr. Brand states.
