

North Bend Guard Sets New Record At State Series

Crowell Tosses 31 Tallies in Game With Parkrose; First Round Results Summarized

SALEM, March 13.—(AP)—A husky North Bend guard set a new scoring record here yesterday as favorites in the 22nd annual state high school basketball tournament moved through the opening round.

Sammy Crowell, who chalked up a season scoring record in the Coos county league this year, cracked Tod Sarpola's record of 27 points in one game by swishing in 31 tallies as North Bend walloped Parkrose, 57 to 26. He collected 12 field goals and 7 free throws.

Sarpola, later a University of Oregon star, established the old mark in 1937 when performing for Astoria.

North Bend faces Klamath Falls, one of the tourney favorites, at 4 p. m., today. Other second round games pit Salem against McMinnville at 3 p. m., Astoria against Eugene 7:30 p. m., and The Dalles against Oregon City at 8:30 p. m.

Klamath's Pelicans remained unruffled as Roseburg's tall Indians tied the count at 16-all yesterday. The Pelicans rallied and slowly drew ahead to a 31-to-18 victory.

Astoria's fishermen, among the favorites, had their hands full with an energetic Vale team that checked as closely in front as in back court. Only in the closing minutes did the coastal team pull ahead, 41 to 35.

Eugene also needed a late drive to win from Corvallis, 24 to 19. The axemen were safely ahead at half-time, 16 to 10, but attempted to stall through the whole of the second half. Corvallis got within two points of a tie before Eugene broke from its lethargy and tallied the winning points.

Baker and The Dalles ran neck-and-neck until the final three minutes. The Dalles trailed by two points, but called on Ed Dick and Mickey Cramer to turn the tide to victory, 31 to 27.

Oregon City also came from behind to defeat Silverton, 46 to 33. Silverton was ahead at half-time, 25 to 18.

Salem, seeking its third straight state title, downed Columbia prep of Portland, 41 to 32, and Mc-

Jim Finlay Voted District 4's Most Valuable Player

Jim Finlay, guard and captain of the Roseburg high school Indians, was voted the most valuable player in district No. 4 basketball conference, according to a poll reported by Bill Hulen, sports editor of the Medford Mail-Tribune. Finlay, Hulen reports, was named the most valuable player in the district by six out of eight coaches and sports writers casting ballots in the poll. The remaining two ballots were cast for Jandreau, Ashland, forward. By virtue of his overwhelming selection for the number 1 spot in the district, Finlay automatically is made captain of the all-star district first team.

The poll, Hulen reports, resulted in the selection of Jandreau, Ashland, and Gunnette, Medford, forwards; Herman, Medford, center; Finlay, Roseburg, and Fawcett, Medford, guards. Second team selections were Provost, Ashland, and Wiard, Roseburg, forwards; Denton, Roseburg, center; Gray, Grants Pass, and Weaver, Ashland, guards. Honorable mention was given Reed, Medford, forward; Smith, Ashland, and Wall, Medford, centers.

Out of a possible 16 points in the voting, Finlay and Jandreau each received 15 points. Fawcett received 13 points, Gunnette 12 points and Herman 7 points. For the second team Provost had 11 points, Gray 10, Weaver 9, Wiard 8, Denton 6. Center was the most hotly contested position, the report states, with Herman nosing out Denton by one point and Wall and Smith only two points behind Denton. One voter shifted Wiard to center.

The Medford Mail-Tribune will issue award cards to players nominated for the first and second teams and those getting honorable mention.
