ELIZABETH MAXINE BULLOCK AND CHARLES ELSON FISHER MARRY

Miss Elizabeth Maxine Bullock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Bullock, and Charles Elson Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher, were married at a very lovely eight o'clock ceremony Saturday evening, March 8th, at the Dale Bullock home in Kellogg, Dr. Charles A. Edwards, of Roseburg, performed the ceremony in the presence of about twenty-five relatives and close friends of the couple.

The improvised altar was beautifully decorated with greenery and spring blossoms, while fourteen tall cathedral candles lighted the room.

Austin Hall, of Portland, sang preceding the ceremony, accompanied by Deane Robinson, of Portland, who played the wedding marches and music during the ceremony.

Eugene Fisher acted as best man to his brother and Mrs. Francis Bullock was matron of honor.

The bride was beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of broad white satin with a shoulder veil of tulle. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses.

A charming reception followed the ceremony. Those present included the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Bullock and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher; the attendants, Mrs. Francis Bullock and Eugene H. Fisher; Austin Hall and Deane Robinson, both of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards, of Roseburg; Mrs. R. Belle Hager, Miss Bernice Beezley Warren, of San Francisco; Miss Mabel George, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Bullock and children, Barbara and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Bullock and son, Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bullock and son, Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ladd, George Bullock, Arthur Bullock and Mrs. Eugene H. Fisher and daughters, Nancy and Janet.

The bride and bridegroom will reside in Kellogg, where they are building a new home adjoining the property of the latter's parents.

EVERGREEN GRANGE HAS REGULAR MEETING AT HALL MONDAY EVENING

The regular business meeting of the Evergreen grange was held Monday evening at the hall with worthy Master Marie Lander presiding.

Thirty-three visitors representing Melrose, Reston, Camas Valley, Riddle, Myrtle Creek and South Deer Creek granges and twenty-four members of Evergreen were present. The new officers' seating drill was presented at this meeting. Announcement was made of the illness of State Deputy Arthur Brown, who was scheduled to be present. In his absence, Mrs. Helen Lander turned the lecturer's program over to County Deputy Fred Goff, who assisted by Mrs. Goff, presented a very instructive floor work and answered questions pertaining to all phases of grange work.

Announcement was also made of the program to be presented by E. A. Britton and his Coca Cola troupe at the grange hall the evening of March 27th. This program will be followed by a basket supper. This special program is being given in the interest of 4-H club summer school scholarships, which the grange is sponsoring. It is hoped by the officers that a large number will be in attendance.

Following the business meeting the home economics club served refreshments. The next regular business session will be held at the hall the evening of March 24.
