STUDY CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

YONCALLA, March 14.—Mrs. Irvin Rice graciously entertained the Yoncalla Study Women's club at her home on Rice hill Thursday afternoon. The rooms were cheerful with a variety of spring flowers. Mrs. Rice was assisted by Mrs. Watson in serving a delicious buffet luncheon.

Mrs. Mulkey presided over the meeting in the absence of the president Mrs. Edgar Richards, who was ill.

A special feature of the program was a book review by Mrs. E. G. Young of Oakland an invited guest. Her review of the book "The Family" by which Nina Fedorova was unusually interesting. The book is of recent publication and is a $10,000.00 prize winner. The authoress resides in Eugene, Ore. A copy is obtainable at the Yoncalla public library, but after hearing Mrs. Young's report of the book it will probably have a long waiting list.

Mrs. Leona Merk read a letter from the manager of the children's farm home in Corvallis, thanking the club and Yoncalla churches for their recent donations of clothing and quilts. One hundred sixty four children age 5 to 17 years are living there and gifts of clothing are appreciated. Mrs. Lillis Brawn is collecting garments for another shipment. The club voted to sew for the inmates of Dornbecker hospital at an all day meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Warner, March 12.

The following officers were elected to serve for 1941-42. Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, president; Mrs. Harvey Cockeram, vice-president; Mrs. Leona Merk, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Dare Kingery read statistics on commerce of Panama canal. Mrs. Ruth Warner read an interesting paper on "The Conquest of the Tropics," and Mrs. Harvey Cockeram described the bazaars of Panama. Members enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. Harvey Cockeram, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Dare Kingery, Mrs. Leslie Chapman, Mrs. Fred Reeves, Mrs. Pinkston, Mrs. Leona Merk, Mrs. John Kruse, Mrs. Earl Brant, Mrs. Jess Laswell, Mrs. Lillis Brawn, Mrs. Hugh Warner, and the guest, Mrs. E. G. Young.

POET'S CORNER

IT'S HERE

The frogs are croaking
Down by the swamp.
Baby lambs bleating,
Playfully romp.

Soft breezes sighing
Gone winter's dread—
Wild geese are flying
High overhead.

Among the flowers
A meadowlark trills,
Occasional showers
Sprinkle the hills.

These heartbeats of nature
What do they bring?
Why just another
Oregon Spring.

—Malinda Oederkirk.

Greyhound Bowlers Top Telegraphic Tourney

A Pacific Greyhound Terminal team from Roseburg won first place in the telegraphic bowling tournament held March 6, according to word received today by James Ralston of the Hotel Valley, local stage terminal. The Roseburg team consisting of Deb Day, B. Beaty, J. Baker, J. Redbarn and J. Ralston, rolled games of 960, 976 and 976 on the local alleys for a total of 2912 pins, including handicap, nosing out Santa Rosa, Calif., by eight pins. Thirteen Oregon and California teams participated and telegraphed scores to San Francisco where the results were announced. A handsome trophy now is on display at San Francisco and is soon to be sent to Roseburg for display at the Hotel Valley for the ensuing year. The trophy will become the permanent property of a team winning it for three successive years.

Southern Pacific Sets Big Sum for Equipment

A $20,000,000 expenditure for new locomotives and freight cars has just been announced by A. D. McDonald, president of the Southern Pacific company. This outlay, McDonald pointed out, is in addition to the purchase of 40 diesel-electric switching engines, at a cost of $2,900,000, since the first of the year.

The current expansion program includes orders for 40 of Southern Pacific's unique cab-ahead steam locomotives, among the heaviest and most powerful in the world, and for 10 steam streamlined locomotives of the famous Daylight type, at a total cost of about $11,000,000. It also provides for approximately 2500 freight cars costing about $9,000,000.
