the contract for wood for the coming year for the school building. The grade school teachers and three high school teachers were given contracts, the only vacancy being that of principal, which so far has not been filled.
 For the first time in many months, the Yoncalla volunteer fire department was called out Saturday afternoon to extinguish a fire in a small building in the rear of the Lena Long lot. Very little damage was done.
 Eldon Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee, narrowly escaped serious injury when, while hauling a small Caterpillar on his truck on the Smith river road recently, he ran in a hole of loose dirt and the truck tipped over on one side and the Cat was thrown off. It was not damaged, but the truck bed was wrecked, and Mr. Lee received a badly bruised and scratched leg.
 Mrs. Dorothy King of Oakland, Calif., arrived here Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lambdin, and her sister, Mrs. Lunney.
 Miss Nancy Madden and Verle Thompson spent the week-end with Miss Madden's parents in Lebanon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lambdin and son, Bob, and Judy King spent the week-end visiting friends at North Bend.
 Bob Roberts, who is with the U. S. army at Fort Stevens, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Roberts, here last week.
 Stacy Adams and Merle Muckey, students at O. S. C., John Wilson, student at U. of O., are at home for their spring vacation.
 Miss Lavina Wilson, teacher at Salem, visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brant, over the week-end.

Sutherlin
 SUTHERLIN, March 19.—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Miller of St. Helens called at the Wm. Manfull home the first of the week en route home from California.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Meredith of Dillard have moved to the Arthur Austin place east of town.
 Word has been received here of the marriage of Richard Carr and Miss Josephine Wilson at San Francisco, Saturday, March 8. Both of the young people are former residents of Sutherlin. Mr. Carr is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carr of this city. Miss Wilson's parents live in Eugene.
 Cliff Parrott, who was ill at the veterans' facility in Roseburg for several days, returned to his home this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomas and daughters, of Pasadena, California, arrived in Sutherlin last week and have moved into the apartment in the Creason building, where they will remain until they can find a definite location in Sutherlin valley.

 Seely Carsons, who has been ill in the sanitarium at The Dalles, arrived here Tuesday for a two weeks' visit at the Robert Bratton home.
 Miss Pauline Trozelle returned here Monday night after spending the week-end in Portland with friends.
 Mrs. Burdette Leas and son, Teddy, of Roseburg are visiting this week at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Meis, west of town.
 Ray Hoyt suffered a very painful injury to his foot Wednesday while working at his logging operation east of town.
 Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Russel, who are enjoying a vacation from the teaching duties at the Yakima Valley academy at Granger, Washington, arrived Thursday for a few days' visit with Mrs. Russel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Manfull.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olsen left Friday morning for Grants Pass and other southern Oregon points for a few days' visit with friends.
 Mrs. Noah Rose, Jr., and baby Slaughter, returned to the Hugg, Wahl home Monday from the hospital in Roseburg.
 Mrs. Jack Culver, Sr., returned home Wednesday from Portland where she visited friends and relatives for a few days.
 Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Randall and daughter, Mary Alice, arrived this week from Salem and are taking up their permanent residence in the Schieman house at the corner of Third avenue and State street. Mr. Randall and Miss Mary Alice expect to open the new theatre, to be known as the "Rand," the first of April, in the Cobb building on Central avenue which is being entirely rebuilt and remodeled especially for the new theatre.
