POET'S CORNER

The following poem was published in Tumbleweed.

WARRIOR MOTHER

You who have mothered a son
As hostage to future strife—
You who have urged him along
That perilous path of life—
What doctrine can justify
The torture of Spartan years?
What vision of sacrifice
Can temper a mother's fears?
Is your grief less sharp, less real,
For having thus seen ahead?
Or is there, perhaps, relief
In knowing him safely dead?

COMMUNITY CLUB HAS FINE MEETING

TENMILE, March 19.—The Tenmile Community club met at the home of Betty Rowell. The home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The meeting was brought to order by the president, Mrs. Hahn. Tickets were given out for a hooked rug made by Mrs. Christopherson and an article was read by Mrs. Henry regarding bundles for Britain. After a penny collection lovely refreshments were served to Eva Simpson, Mrs. Hahn, Elva Breitenebuer, Mrs. Crowley, Mrs. Boursa, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. J. J. Rathkey, Mrs. Rathkey, Sr., Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. C. Seigal, Mrs. C. Rowell, Shirley Rowell and the hostess, Betty Rowell, and twin daughters. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. J. Rathkey.

GARDEN CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

CAMAS VALLEY, March 19.—The March 4th meeting of the Camas Valley Garden club was held at two o'clock at the church. No business meeting was held as the entire afternoon was taken up by Mr. Lyman of the Swift and company fertilizer works of Portland. Mr. Lyman showed slides of beautiful gardens, and flower and shrub arrangements for both large and small gardens. He also talked on general flower growing and use of fertilizers and answered questions. The club members felt they had spent a very profitable afternoon.

Those present were Mrs. Margaret Crouch, Mrs. Helen Mayer, Mrs. Ellen Markham, Mrs. Lula

NOSE PICKING May be a Sign of WORMS

Don't blame your child! It looks like just a nasty habit, but it may mean that ugly, crawling roundworms are waiting trouble inside the child right now. Other warning signs are: "picky" appetite, fidgeting, uneasy stomach, itching seat.

Anybody, anywhere, can "catch" roundworms! If you even suspect your child has them, get Jayne's Vermifuge right away! It's America's leading proprietary worm medicine. Scientifically tested, and used by millions for over a century.

Jayne's expels stubborn worms, yet acts gently. If no worms are there, it is just as mild laxative. Demand Jayne's Vermifuge.
