

Society and Clubs

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

S. D. C. GRANGE MEETS SATURDAY

South Deer Creek grange held a seven o'clock potluck supper followed by regular business meeting Saturday at the hall. An interesting report was given by W. Melton, member of the legislative committee. A short report was given by H. E. C. Chairman Mrs. W. Karcher. Mrs. Karcher announced that the next regular meeting of the H. E. club was to be held at the hall for the purpose of cleaning the hall. The business agent gave a short report. The lecturer presented the following program:

Group Singing—"Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms."

The Shamrock—Mrs. W. Bailey, Rollicall—James Ingram.

"Mrs. Malone and the Censor"—Mrs. L. Patterson.

Household Item—Mrs. H. Collison.

Orchestra—"My Wild Irish Rose."

Spoken Out of Turn—Mrs. W. Melton.

Rollicall—Mrs. C. Anderson.

Legendary History of St. Patrick's Day.

Poison for Garden Slugs—Mr. W. Karcher.

The Ultimate Blow—Clarence Anderson.

Rollicall—Mrs. Roy Kelly.

Two pencil and paper games and two active games.

Next regular meeting will be at the hall Saturday, April 5.

MRS. GOFF IS HONORED AT PARTY

SUTHERLIN, March 20.—Mrs. Florence Goff was the recipient of a birthday party Tuesday evening, March 11, when a group of friends from the Sutherlin grange dropped in to spend the evening.

Those enjoying the party were Mrs. Goff, the honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boden, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Bever, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. French, Mrs. W. P. Graham, Mrs. Reba Hartley, Mrs. Claude Schrack, Miss Iris Goff, and Clyde Henderson.

DICKIE CLOUD IS HONORED AT BIRTHDAY

SUTHERLIN, March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Owen Rose entertained at a dinner party at their home east of town Friday evening in honor of the latter's nephew, Dickie Cloud, of Roseburg on his 7th birthday.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Fay Paddelford of Tenmile, Mrs. Lynn Cloud and son, Dickie, of Roseburg, Miss Barbara and Donna Rae Rose, and Mr. and Mrs. Rose.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

SUTHERLIN, March 20.—The benefit card party sponsored by the Sutherlin Parent Teachers club at the Arts building Monday evening, March 17, proved to be a very enjoyable occasion as well as a financial success. Tables were placed and prizes awarded for bridge, pinocle, 500 and Chinese checkers. Mrs. Bob Donald won high score at bridge for the ladies with Clifford Horner the prize winner among the men. Mrs. Paul Trozelle took high honors for the ladies at pinocle while Harold High was high for men. At the 500 tables Mrs. Mary Hayner made the fine score of 2350 while John Musgrave won the men's prize. Mrs. Chris Bachman won at the checker table.

During the evening the 4-H girls sold home made candy to the gathering and a delicious lunch was served at the conclusion of play. Proceeds of the party, amounting to $12.45, are to be used for a 4-H club scholarship at Oregon State college this summer.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holgate, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Holgate, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Trozelle, Mr. and Mrs. John Musgrave, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Vogelpohl, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. George Beecroft, Mr. and Mrs. Brittain Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Davis, Mrs. Maude Vogelpohl, Mrs. Mary Hayner, Mrs. A. B. Chester, Mrs. Richard Riggs, Miss Mabel Williams, Mrs. Madeline Stowe, Mrs. Jack Culver Jr., Mrs. Douglas Hunter, Mrs. Chris Bachman, Clifford Horner, Harold High, Miss Patty Jordan, Miss Fawn Gervais, Miss Virginia Beller, Miss Ruth Real and Miss Clara Rose.

MRS. GRANGE TO PRESENT COMEDY AT HALL ON SATURDAY EVENING

These grange met in regular session Tuesday night at the hall with Alice Goff presiding. The meeting opened with the seating drill, followed by the appointment of the reception committee for the next quarter, including Flora Cox, O. O. Matthews and Katie Conn.

Plans were completed for presenting the three-act mystery comedy, "Peeka-Boo Penny," to be given at the hall Saturday evening, March 22, at eight o'clock, and for an entertainment for the Roseburg Kiwanis club to be held at the hall next Tuesday night, March 25.

The following program was enjoyed: Reading, "Casey at the Bat," by D. N. Busenbark; two skits from the comedy, "Peeka-Boo Penny," with the following taking part, Amy Kruse, Ruth Matthews, Crystal Conn, Alice Meyers, Floyd Felt, Ray Doerner and Vaclav Bursik. Following a St. Patrick's game in charge of William Bonebrake, drill practice was held.

MR. AND MRS. FRENCH CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

SUTHERLIN, March 20.—A group of friends gathered at the O. W. French home Monday evening on the occasion of Mr. and Mrs. French's 44th wedding anniversary. Dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. The Holmes and daughter, Beth Marie, Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Weaver, Mrs. Claude Schrack, Mrs. M. W. French and Mr. and Mrs. French.

During the dinner several members of the grange, Mrs. Florence Goff, Miss Iris Goff, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Bever, Clyde Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown, arrived with a pretty wedding cake and other refreshments, and charivariated the honor couple, Mr. and Mrs. French. Chinese checkers and visiting were the diversion of the evening.

CLARETHER ROSELUND IS MEMBER OF FRENCH HONORARY SOCIETY

Miss Clarethel Roselund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Roselund of this city, has been admitted to Zeta Phi Delta Phi, national French honorary sorority, at University of Oregon, where she is a student. Miss Roselund was recently sent a notification by the sorority written entirely in French notifying her of her being asked to membership in the honorary society.

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

"Donald, may I borrow that sweater of yours? I'd like the full attention of my feminine students just once!"

MR. AND MRS. HOLGATE ENTERTAIN CLUB

SUTHERLIN, March 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Vern Holgate entertained the members of the Sutherlin Bridge club at their home on Third avenue Wednesday evening, March 5. Contract bridge was at play with Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Stearns holding high score for a combined prize. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Robertson received the combined second prize.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of violets and jonquils. A delicious salad luncheon was served at midnight to Mr. and Mrs. Brittain Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stearns and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Holgate.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vogler, of Scottsburg, were Elkton visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gipe of Portland, spent Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emerick. Mr. and Mrs. Gipe were on their way home from San Francisco where Mr. Gipe was in the hospital. Mrs. Emerick is a sister of Mr. Gipe.

Mrs. Ella Fenley and Mr. and Mrs. Windust were Roseburg visitors Saturday.

Donald Johnson, of Scottsburg, was visiting in Elkton Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckley and family, of Marshfield, spent the week-end visiting Mrs. Mary Beckley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madison, who are working near Portland, spent the week-end at Elkton.

Mrs. Virgie Madison, of Scottsburg, was visiting in Elkton Saturday.

Norman Weatherly and children spent the week-end in Portland.

Mrs. Verona Daniel went to Portland Wednesday to attend the wedding of her grandson, Donald Arrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hudson, Miss Evelyn Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haines, and Miss Vera Haines went to Eugene Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ernestina Standacher. The services were held from the Veatch chapel, with interment in the I. O. O. F. Masonic cemetery at Cottage Grove. Mrs. Standacher was the mother of Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garrison have moved near Drain to the same place Mr. and Mrs. Neal Garrison moved some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McColluck have returned from a trip to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bunch have made several trips to Roseburg recently to take their daughter, Mary Alice, out to have her throat treated. Mary Alice is reported better.

A. B. Haines and B. B. Haines went to Lakeside Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cox.

Miss Bernice Garrison, who works at Eugene met Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garrison at Drain Sunday. They drove to Grants Pass to see Mrs. James Adamo and infant daughter.

Mrs. Marietta Haines and Iris Haines took B. B. Haines to Eugene Monday afternoon and visited with Mrs. Wilbur Haines. Mrs. Haines stayed to take a train that evening for his home at Phenix, Ariz. He has been visiting his mother and daughter and other relatives the past week and a half.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garrison received word Friday from Mr. and Mrs. James Adamo, of Gold Hill, of the birth of a daughter. This is the Garrison's first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Solomon and daughter, Joy, of Roseburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Haines. Mrs. Dora McClay went home with them to stay a few days with Mrs. Solomon, who is not well.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Binder made a trip to Bandon Sunday and came home Monday.

James Gates, who is working at Medford, spent the week-end at home.

The senior class of Elkton high school is working on a play. The date for presentation has not been set.

Mrs. Ben Morganti and infant son have returned home from Drain where the baby was born.

Mrs. Walter Haines is in the hospital at Eugene where she is recovering from an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doty and family have moved to Prospect. The Dotys have lived on the George Binder place the past several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vogler, of Scottsburg, were Elkton visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gipe of Portland, spent Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emerick. Mr. and Mrs. Gipe were on their way home from San Francisco where Mr. Gipe was in the hospital. Mrs. Emerick is a sister of Mr. Gipe.

Mrs. Ella Fenley and Mr. and Mrs. Windust were Roseburg visitors Saturday.

Donald Johnson, of Scottsburg, was visiting in Elkton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckley and family, of Marshfield, spent the week-end visiting Mrs. Mary Beckley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madison, who are working near Portland, spent the week-end at Elkton.

Mrs. Virgie Madison, of Scottsburg, was visiting in Elkton Saturday.

Norman Weatherly and children spent the week-end in Portland.

Mrs. Verona Daniel went to Portland Wednesday to attend the wedding of her grandson, Donald Arrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hudson, Miss Evelyn Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haines, and Miss Vera Haines went to Eugene Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ernestina Standacher. The services were held from the Veatch chapel, with interment in the I. O. O. F. Masonic cemetery at Cottage Grove. Mrs. Standacher was the mother of Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garrison have moved near Drain to the same place Mr. and Mrs. Neal Garrison moved some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McColluck have returned from a trip to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bunch have made several trips to Roseburg recently to take their daughter, Mary Alice, out to have her throat treated. Mary Alice is reported better.

A. B. Haines and B. B. Haines went to Lakeside Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cox.

Miss Bernice Garrison, who works at Eugene met Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garrison at Drain Sunday. They drove to Grants Pass to see Mrs. James Adamo and infant daughter.

Mrs. Marietta Haines and Iris Haines took B. B. Haines to Eugene Monday afternoon and visited with Mrs. Wilbur Haines. Mrs. Haines stayed to take a train that evening for his home at Phenix, Ariz. He has been visiting his mother and daughter and other relatives the past week and a half.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garrison received word Friday from Mr. and Mrs. James Adamo, of Gold Hill, of the birth of a daughter. This is the Garrison's first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Solomon and daughter, Joy, of Roseburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Haines. Mrs. Dora McClay went home with them to stay a few days with Mrs. Solomon, who is not well.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Binder made a trip to Bandon Sunday and came home Monday.

James Gates, who is working

Local News

Leaves for San Francisco—Mrs. F. W. Chase, of this city, left today for San Francisco to spend a week or ten days visiting her brother, W. R. Tabor.

Move to Roseburg—Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Johnson, of Glendale, have moved into Roseburg to make their home. Mr. Johnson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson of this city.

Leaves for Portland—Mrs. Bob Nicholson left Wednesday for her home in Portland, following a few days in this city visiting her husband, who is employed at the local Safeway meat market.

Visiting Grandparents—Sandra Rapp, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rapp of this city, is spending a couple of weeks in Lookingglass visiting her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Strickland.

Here From Waldport—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bannister, of Waldport, formerly of this city, spent Wednesday in Roseburg attending to property interests and visiting friends. They were accompanied by their son, Robert.

Return to Coast—Jerry and Ralph Williams have left for their home in Marshfield, following the school vacation in Roseburg visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harth, on East Cass street.

P. E. O. to Meet—BI Chapter of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will meet Friday at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Adeline Stewart at 124 Chadwick street with Mrs. E. G. Young as program chairman.

Go to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Arthur, of this city, took their six-year-old son, Marvin Louie, to Portland this week, where the latter entered the Shrine hospital for medical attention. Mr. Arthur is employed at Lockwood Motors.

Move to Eugene—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mowdy, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, of this city, have subleased their place at Bridge and moved to Eugene. The Mowdys are well known here, having formerly made their home in this city.

Past Presidents Club to Meet—The Past Presidents club of George Starmer auxiliary to United States War Veterans will meet Friday at a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Taylor, 116 W. Moshers street.

Health Association to Meet—The first meeting of the new year of the Douglas County Health association will be held Friday night at 8 o'clock at the health office at the courthouse. All members and persons interested are invited to attend. President Thomas Hartfield will be in charge.

Leaves for Eugene—Mrs. Julia V. Ward, Portland state field director for the Oregon Woman's Benefit association, and Dr. Anna Reynolds, supreme medical examiner for the Port Huron, Michigan, left Roseburg Wednesday for Eugene to visit the review there, following a day's stay in this city paying an official call on the local review.

Leaves for Army Duty—Bob Chase, who has been employed in Klamath Falls and has been spending the last few days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, left today for Washington to begin his duties in the U. S. army. Mr. Chase has not been informed as to where he will be located permanently as yet.

Called to Defense Job—Austin C. Green, who for the last two years has operated a tobacco and news stand near the Jackson-Cass street corner, has been called to industrial duty in the national defense program, in the capacity of a machinist, his former vocation. He is now arranging to dispose of his business preparatory to reporting at the U. S. navy yard at Bremerton, Wash., by April 1. Mr. Green worked as a machinist for the Southern Pacific Railway company for 12 years and as an engine inspector for three additional years prior to entering business life.

Here Until Saturday—Mrs. Howard Pealer, of Oakland, is here at the home of Mrs. W. R. Murray, while visiting her husband, who is a patient at Mercy hospital with a fractured leg. Mrs. Pealer will return to Oakland Saturday.

Meeting Postponed—On account of the spring opening, the Bible study course class of St. Paul's Lutheran church has postponed its meeting from this week to Friday, March 28, to be held at the home of Rev. W. A. Sylwester.

Stop Here—Captain Harry L. Beard, director of the Oregon State college band, and daughter, Miss Jean, of Corvallis, stopped here yesterday to visit at the H. C. Berg home en route to Myrtle Creek to visit at the Henry Adams home.

Here for Funeral—Mrs. F. S. Martin, of Puyallup, Wash.; Mrs. C. H. McKnight and daughters, Miss Charlotte and Mrs. Fred Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Van Den Bosh, all of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison, of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McKnight, of Dallas, were here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Northcraft, mother of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. C. H. McKnight.

Leaves for Cheyenne—Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of this city, left today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline, former residents of Roseburg, and meet her daughter, Miss Frances, who has been attending school in Detroit, Mich. Miss Wimberly is driving back a new car from Michigan and will accompany her mother back to this city.

Leaves for Army Duty—Bob Chase, who has been employed in Klamath Falls and has been spending the last few days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, left today for Washington to begin his duties in the U. S. army. Mr. Chase has not been informed as to where he will be located permanently as yet.

Called to Defense Job—Austin C. Green, who for the last two years has operated a tobacco and news stand near the Jackson-Cass street corner, has been called to industrial duty in the national defense program, in the capacity of a machinist, his former vocation. He is now arranging to dispose of his business preparatory to reporting at the U. S. navy yard at Bremerton, Wash., by April 1. Mr. Green worked as a machinist for the Southern Pacific Railway company for 12 years and as an engine inspector for three additional years prior to entering business life.

Here Until Saturday—Mrs. Howard Pealer, of Oakland, is here at the home of Mrs. W. R. Murray, while visiting her husband, who is a patient at Mercy hospital with a fractured leg. Mrs. Pealer will return to Oakland Saturday.

Meeting Postponed—On account of the spring opening, the Bible study course class of St. Paul's Lutheran church has postponed its meeting from this week to Friday, March 28, to be held at the home of Rev. W. A. Sylwester.

Stop Here—Captain Harry L. Beard, director of the Oregon State college band, and daughter, Miss Jean, of Corvallis, stopped here yesterday to visit at the H. C. Berg home en route to Myrtle Creek to visit at the Henry Adams home.

Here for Funeral—Mrs. F. S. Martin, of Puyallup, Wash.; Mrs. C. H. McKnight and daughters, Miss Charlotte and Mrs. Fred Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Van Den Bosh, all of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison, of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McKnight, of Dallas, were here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Northcraft, mother of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. C. H. McKnight.

Leaves for Cheyenne—Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of this city, left today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline, former residents of Roseburg, and meet her daughter, Miss Frances, who has been attending school in Detroit, Mich. Miss Wimberly is driving back a new car from Michigan and will accompany her mother back to this city.

Leaves for Army Duty—Bob Chase, who has been employed in Klamath Falls and has been spending the last few days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, left today for Washington to begin his duties in the U. S. army. Mr. Chase has not been informed as to where he will be located permanently as yet.

Called to Defense Job—Austin C. Green, who for the last two years has operated a tobacco and news stand near the Jackson-Cass street corner, has been called to industrial duty in the national defense program, in the capacity of a machinist, his former vocation. He is now arranging to dispose of his business preparatory to reporting at the U. S. navy yard at Bremerton, Wash., by April 1. Mr. Green worked as a machinist for the Southern Pacific Railway company for 12 years and as an engine inspector for three additional years prior to entering business life.

Here Until Saturday—Mrs. Howard Pealer, of Oakland, is here at the home of Mrs. W. R. Murray, while visiting her husband, who is a patient at Mercy hospital with a fractured leg. Mrs. Pealer will return to Oakland Saturday.

Scott and Shiner

Sporting a shiner he claims his mule Star Dust, gave him, Walter Scott, better known as Death Valley Scotty, is shown in a Los Angeles Federal Court, where he's contesting a suit that may reveal the source of his mysterious wealth. Scott, owner of a $2,381,000 desert castle, is being sued by a New York financier, who claims he grubstaked Scotty in 1902, never received a percentage of his "fabulous mining profits."

Attends to Business—John Woodward, of Cottage Grove, spent Wednesday in this city on business.

At Berg Home—Miss Annabelle and Miss Clarabelle Berg, students at Oregon State college, are spending the week here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Berg.

Vacationing—Miss Patricia Abeel, employee at the Douglas National bank, is spending her vacation visiting in San Francisco and other points in the bay region.

At Carter Home—Bruce Carter and Jack M. Rice, both students at U. of O., are spending the week here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carter. Jack is a resident of San Francisco.

No-Hostess Luncheon—The Business and Professional Women's club members and friends have been invited to attend a no-hostess luncheon Friday at 12 o'clock at the Hotel Grand coffee shop.

Here Until Saturday—Mrs. Howard Pealer, of Oakland, is here at the home of Mrs. W. R. Murray, while visiting her husband, who is a patient at Mercy hospital with a fractured leg. Mrs. Pealer will return to Oakland Saturday.

Meeting Postponed—On account of the spring opening, the Bible study course class of St. Paul's Lutheran church has postponed its meeting from this week to Friday, March 28, to be held at the home of Rev. W. A. Sylwester.

Stop Here—Captain Harry L. Beard, director of the Oregon State college band, and daughter, Miss Jean, of Corvallis, stopped here yesterday to visit at the H. C. Berg home en route to Myrtle Creek to visit at the Henry Adams home.

Here for Funeral—Mrs. F. S. Martin, of Puyallup, Wash.; Mrs. C. H. McKnight and daughters, Miss Charlotte and Mrs. Fred Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Van Den Bosh, all of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison, of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McKnight, of Dallas, were here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Northcraft, mother of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. C. H. McKnight.

Leaves for Cheyenne—Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of this city, left today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline, former residents of Roseburg, and meet her daughter, Miss Frances, who has been attending school in Detroit, Mich. Miss Wimberly is driving back a new car from Michigan and will accompany her mother back to this city.

Leaves for Army Duty—Bob Chase, who has been employed in Klamath Falls and has been spending the last few days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, left today for Washington to begin his duties in the U. S. army. Mr. Chase has not been informed as to where he will be located permanently as yet.

Called to Defense Job—Austin C. Green, who for the last two years has operated a tobacco and news stand near the Jackson-Cass street corner, has been called to industrial duty in the national defense program, in the capacity of a machinist, his former vocation. He is now arranging to dispose of his business preparatory to reporting at the U. S. navy yard at Bremerton, Wash., by April 1. Mr. Green worked as a machinist for the Southern Pacific Railway company for 12 years and as an engine inspector for three additional years prior to entering business life.

Here Until Saturday—Mrs. Howard Pealer, of Oakland, is here at the home of Mrs. W. R. Murray, while visiting her husband, who is a patient at Mercy hospital with a fractured leg. Mrs. Pealer will return to Oakland Saturday.

Meeting Postponed—On account of the spring opening, the Bible study course class of St. Paul's Lutheran church has postponed its meeting from this week to Friday, March 28, to be held at the home of Rev. W. A. Sylwester.

Stop Here—Captain Harry L. Beard, director of the Oregon State college band, and daughter, Miss Jean, of Corvallis, stopped here yesterday to visit at the H. C. Berg home en route to Myrtle Creek to visit at the Henry Adams home.

Here for Funeral—Mrs. F. S. Martin, of Puyallup, Wash.; Mrs. C. H. McKnight and daughters, Miss Charlotte and Mrs. Fred Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Van Den Bosh, all of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison, of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McKnight, of Dallas, were here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Northcraft, mother of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. C. H. McKnight.

Leaves for Cheyenne—Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of this city, left today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline, former residents of Roseburg, and meet her daughter, Miss Frances, who has been attending school in Detroit, Mich. Miss Wimberly is driving back a new car from Michigan and will accompany her mother back to this city.

Leaves for Army Duty—Bob Chase, who has been employed in Klamath Falls and has been spending the last few days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, left today for Washington to begin his duties in the U. S. army. Mr. Chase has not been informed as to where he will be located permanently as yet.

Called to Defense Job—Austin C. Green, who for the last two years has operated a tobacco and news stand near the Jackson-Cass street corner, has been called to industrial duty in the national defense program, in the capacity of a machinist, his former vocation. He is now arranging to dispose of his business preparatory to reporting at the U. S. navy yard at Bremerton, Wash., by April 1. Mr. Green worked as a machinist for the Southern Pacific Railway company for 12 years and as an engine inspector for three additional years prior to entering business life.

Here Until Saturday—Mrs. Howard Pealer, of Oakland, is here at the home of Mrs. W. R. Murray, while visiting her husband, who is a patient at Mercy hospital with a fractured leg. Mrs. Pealer will return to Oakland Saturday.

Meeting Postponed—On account of the spring opening, the Bible study course class of St. Paul's Lutheran church has postponed its meeting from this week to Friday, March 28, to be held at the home of Rev. W. A. Sylwester.

Stop Here—Captain Harry L. Beard, director of the Oregon State college band, and daughter, Miss Jean, of Corvallis, stopped here yesterday to visit at the H. C. Berg home en route to Myrtle Creek to visit at the Henry Adams home.

Here for Funeral—Mrs. F. S. Martin, of Puyallup, Wash.; Mrs. C. H. McKnight and daughters, Miss Charlotte and Mrs. Fred Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Van Den Bosh, all of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison, of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McKnight, of Dallas, were here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Northcraft, mother of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. C. H. McKnight.

Leaves for Cheyenne—Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of this city, left today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline, former residents of Roseburg, and meet her daughter, Miss Frances, who has been attending school in Detroit, Mich. Miss Wimberly is driving back a new car from Michigan and will accompany her mother back to this city.

Leaves for Army Duty—Bob Chase, who has been employed in Klamath Falls and has been spending the last few days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, left today for Washington to begin his duties in the U. S. army. Mr. Chase has not been informed as to where he will be located permanently as yet.

Called to Defense Job—Austin C. Green, who for the last two years has operated a tobacco and news stand near the Jackson-Cass street corner, has been called to industrial duty in the national defense program, in the capacity of a machinist, his former vocation. He is now arranging to dispose of his business preparatory to reporting at the U. S. navy yard at Bremerton, Wash., by April 1. Mr. Green worked as a machinist for the Southern Pacific Railway company for 12 years and as an engine inspector for three additional years prior to entering business life.

R