Miss Helen Casey Presents One-Act Comedy At Woman's Club Tea and Fashion Show

Miss Helen Casey, who is widely known here for her ability as an actress and director of plays, presented her fourteenth one-act comedy, "Afternoon Tea," before a large audience at the Roseburg Woman's club annual spring tea and fashion show Tuesday at the clubhouse. The program was in charge of Miss Casey and Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen, joint chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Jack Saksdorf and Mrs. L. E. Garwood.

Mrs. W. R. Brown, president of the club, very graciously welcomed the guests and acted as general chairman of the tea. The clubhouse was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of colorful spring blossoms. Mrs. Jack Saksdorf had charge of the special music and played for the fashion show. Models in the fashion show included:

Sports, evening gown and wedding gown modeled by Mrs. Harold Hoyt; morning, afternoon and sports attire modeled by Mrs. Adrian Bowen; morning outfit and evening gown modeled by Mrs. J. E. Slattery; sports and afternoon ensembles modeled by Mrs. Paul Smith; wedding gown of Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., modeled by Mrs. John M. Baish; wedding gown of Mrs. Walter S. Hamilton, modeled by Mrs. I. B. Riddle; short evening gown modeled by Mrs. William Bell, and the old-fashioned costumes in the play modeled by Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

A short patriotic address was given by Mrs. William Horsfall, of Marshfield, American Legion auxiliary officer, who has just returned to the west coast from a trip to Washington, D. C.

The charming one-act comedy, "Afternoon Tea," opened the program for the afternoon and the cast was headed by Miss Casey, and supported by Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter. Miss Casey was highly complimented by the members and guests for her presentation of the comedy. Besides the fourteen plays presented for the Woman's club as benefit affairs, Miss Casey has directed numerous entertainments in this city.

Mrs. Brown was assisted on the tea committee by Mrs. Earl Ullrich and Mrs. George Frew with Mrs. Foster Butler in charge of decorating the tea table. A gorgeous lace cloth covered the table, which was centered with a low white pottery bowl filled with yellow and white blossoms and flanked by tall yellow and green tapers and tiny bouquets of forsythia and grape hyacinths.

Mrs. C. E. Jump and Mrs. George M. Brown poured.

The benefit plays and teas are given by the club every spring and fall to raise funds for the club. The spring tea proved to be one of the most delightful and successful affairs of the club year. Properties for the play were furnished through the courtesy of Bubar brothers, Mrs. R. D. Coen, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. J. P. Barker and Mrs. John Young.
