Seer Says Mouthful

NEW YORK. Shuffling her cards, a tea-room fortune teller sagely told Emma Gross: "You will soon visit a large building and sign some papers." And so it came to pass. That very night, Policewoman Emma Gross visited Brooklyn-Queens night court—a large building—and signed "some papers" under which the fortune teller was held for the illegal practice.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Take Time To Live

"Time to read good books; to hobnob with thinkers, poets, explorers, adventurers, seers, scientists and prophets. Time to listen to the greatest, and most inspiring speakers. Time for worship; for the spiritual stimulus of being in tune with the infinite. Time for laughter; for letting go and filling the heart with mirth. Time to play; to pal with children and discover again the fountain of youth. Time for friendship; for quiet talk by the fire, for walks beneath the stars. Time for careless leisure; to loaf and dream, and grow a great soul. Time for service; to be a good neighbor and to help make our community a better place in which to live. Time for travel; for mountains, cathedrals, rockbound coasts and busy cities. Time for music that washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life. Time for the great outdoors; to enjoy the beauty of flowers and trees, and birds, and sunsets. Time to love, and be loved; for love is the greatest thing in the world. Time for recreation; to keep ourselves fit and recreate the physical body. Time for nature; to soil our hands in the good earth and marvel at growing things. Time—yes, to get the most out of life, let us take time to live."—Poem adopted by Kiwanis club, Roseburg, Oregon.
