

Kay Kyser Band Dated at Eugene

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 25.—Professor Kay Kyser and his complete band will open a spring session of the "College of Musical Knowledge" in Eugene Friday night, March 28, when he presents a special concert.

The entire Kyser faculty, including Ginny Simms, Ish Kabibble, Sully Mason and Harry Babbitt, will be on hand as the professor quizzes six students from local schools on the whys and hows of musical knowledge.

With the entire audience as his student body, Kyser will go through the acts "in person" which have made his programs a nation-wide attraction.

Starting time for the concert is 7:30 p. m. Lyle Nelson, president of Sigma Delta Chi, dance sponsor, announced. Musical specialties will break up preliminary and final "rounds" of questions and answers, which last until 8:30.

The Kyser show comes to Eugene direct from Fort Lewis. The Eugene appearance is the only one in Oregon outside of Portland.

Following the concert the floor will be cleared and at 9 o'clock a dance session will start.

Millikin May Not Accept Mayor Job

SEATTLE, March 25.—(AP)—County Auditor Earl Millikin, a former Oregon school teacher who climaxed a six-year political career with his election as mayor of Seattle two weeks ago, may choose to decline the post to protect the jobs of 55 of his present employees.

This developed yesterday—the day of his slated inauguration—which found him in the auditor's office while across the hall in the county-city building facing Mayor John E. Carroll still held the helm of the city government.

Unless county commissioners, who would name his successor as auditor, and Millikin come to an understanding the sun will set today with Mayor-elect Millikin still county auditor.

Millikin has made it known he will not resign as auditor unless

Log Breaks Both Legs of Yoncalla Boy at Play

YONCALLA, March 24.—Mac Main, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Williams, is in Emanuel hospital, Portland, suffering from two badly broken legs. Mac, while waiting for the bus to come in with papers which he delivers, started playing on some piling near the depot. One of the logs rolled over on him, breaking both legs between the knee and the thigh. Dr. McKaig gave first aid, then Harry Stearns took the boy and his mother to Portland in his ambulance.

Children had been repeatedly warned of the danger of playing on the piling, but it just happened no adult was near when the accident happened. It will be ten days before the broken bones can be set. It was learned late yesterday. One of the bones is badly shattered.

Better than a dozen hankies for opening STUFFY NOSTRILS

What's the use of soiling so many hankies, trying to blow mucus out of stuffed nostrils, only to get it on the laundry bill. And remember, a lot of violent blowing only makes your nose more sore, red, unhealthily, and it very often injures the delicate membranes.

A more economical and gentler way to relieve congestion in your nostrils due to a cold is to insert a little Mentholatum.

Mentholatum helps in so many ways that you should always remember this: For Discomforts from Colds—Mentholatum. Link them together in your mind.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Official Christianity of late years has been having what is known as "a bad press." We are constantly assured that the churches are empty because preachers insist too much upon doctrine—"dull dogma"—as people call it. The fact is the precise opposite. It is the neglect of dogma that makes for dullness. The Christian faith is the most exciting drama that ever staggered the imagination of man, and the dogma is the drama.

That drama is summarized quite clearly in the creeds of the church, and if we think it dull it is because we either have never really read these amazing documents or have recited them so often and so mechanically as to have lost all sense of their meaning.

The plot pivots upon a single character, and the whole action is the answer to a single central problem. "What think ye of Christ?" Before we adopt any of the unofficial solutions, some of which are indeed excessively dull, before we dismiss Christ as a myth, an idealist, a demagogue, a liar or a fanatic, it will do no harm to find out what the Christian creeds really say about Him. What does the church think of Christ? Is He still the fairest among ten thousand, and the one altogether lovely? Amen.

Legal experts say Millikin must take office by March 29 or be disqualified. In that event Carroll would continue as mayor until the next city election.

To which Millikin replied today: "I'm not all wrapped up in being mayor. I like being county auditor. I'm not going to leave my employees at the mercy of the commissioners."

Millikin, whose term as auditor expires in January, 1943, receives $3,300 annually. As mayor he would receive $7,500. He listed $6,172 as the cost of his general election campaign.

Camas Valley Home Destroyed by Fire

CAMAS VALLEY, March 25.—The house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Martindale was totally destroyed by fire shortly after seven o'clock Saturday evening.

Mrs. Martindale was alone in the house and not feeling well had gone to bed after finishing up her supper work and getting kindling and wood ready for morning. She had been boarding from twelve to sixteen men from the Fish logging camp below Camas.

The fire presumably started near the kitchen range and was too well underway before it was discovered for any thing to be saved. One trunk full of articles was gotten out by the first arrivals. Mrs. Martindale, clad only in night clothing, barely escaped from the house and some one brought a blanket from their car to wrap her in until she got to the home of Mr. Martindale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martindale. Besides the household goods and clothing about $80 worth of food supplies were lost.

Two axes and several dozen empty fruit jars were taken from the woodshed back of the house before it caught fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Martindale are at present staying at the Robert Martindale home. No plans have as yet been made as to what they will do.

The house which burned belonged to Jim Combs. No insurance was carried.
