Married at Episcopal Church Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bacon

One of the largest weddings of the season occurred Sunday afternoon, March 23rd, at two-thirty o'clock at St. George's Episcopal church in Roseburg, when Miss Doris Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Haines, of Umpqua, and Gerald Bacon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bacon, also of Umpqua, were married. Rev. Perry Smith, rector, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.

Proceeding the wedding ceremony, Mrs. Floyd Lewis sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Bernard Saar, who played the wedding march from Lohengrin for the bridal party to advance to the altar.

The bride wore an attractive afternoon frock of dusty rose, fashioned with a tucked bodice, swing skirt and elbow length sleeves. She wore a corsage of bouvardia. Miss Janet Davison, of Oakland, was bridesmaid and wore an Alice blue afternoon frock and a corsage of pale yellow rosebuds. Stanley Long, of Umpqua, acted as best man to the bridegroom. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Haines and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bacon, parents of the bride couple; Mr. and Mrs. David Hill, Mrs. M. E. James, Mrs. Kate Farnsworth, Miss Ina Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Banning, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. Lulu Gorrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Emmitt, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Higgins and family, Mrs. Horace Sonneborn, Mrs. Ethel Turner, Mrs. Charles Solomon and Joy, Miss Dora Broughton, Miss Zella Richman, Miss Patricia and Miss Jean Turner, Miss Charlotte Dillard, Miss Lila Miller, Miss Loretta Bailey, all of Roseburg; Miss Helen Gorrell, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Broszio and Marjorie Ann, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Grubbe, Mr.

Robert Arneson, president of the Diocesan of Women's auxiliaries of Oregon, Mrs. Hunt Hendrickson and Mrs. Bowman, all of Portland. The supper is in charge of Mrs. R. B. Sippell, Mrs. Grant H. Moore and Mrs. C. G. Ferrier.

Mrs. J. F. Dillard won the high score for the bridge tournament play at the meeting of the ladies of the Country club Thursday morning at the clubhouse with Mrs. H. C. Stearns winning second high.

Potluck luncheon was enjoyed at noon and was served at a long table beautifully decorated with bouquets of weeping cherry blossoms, lilacs and spirea from the W. E. Ott gardens. A lovely birthday cake was cut in honor of Mrs. J. R. Mountford.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Frank Coen, captain, Mrs. E. A. Parson, secretary; Mrs. J. R. Mountford, guest of honor, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. W. M. McEachern, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Harriet Ellsworth, Mrs. Arthur H. Mountford, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Mrs. W. J. Olmscheid, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. L. Stearns, Mrs. Gene Greene, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. R. D. Bridges and Mrs. L. E. McClintock.

Following the luncheon the ladies opened the match play of the winter handicap golf tournament.

Next Thursday the ladies will begin their bridge play promptly at 9:30 o'clock, followed by a 12:15 o'clock potluck luncheon. In the afternoon the golf tournament matches will be resumed.

EPISCOPAL LADIES TO ENJOY POTLUCK SUPPER

The ladies of St. George's Episcopal church are invited to enjoy a six-thirty o'clock potluck supper of the parish hall next Monday evening honoring Mrs.

PATRICIA HELEN MAYO AND WILLIAM O. JONES MARRY ON SATURDAY

Before an improvised altar of white spring blossoms before the "replac" at the Oswego lake home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walter Mayo, Miss Patricia Helen Mayo became the bride of Mr. William Orville Jones of Palo Alto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson Jones of St. Paul, Minn. The Rev. Frederick McDonald read the service Saturday afternoon in the presence of members of the family and a small group of close friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a sheer frock of white marquisette made with sweetheart neckline and trimmed with grosgrain ribbon. She wore the wedding veil of her sister, Mrs. William D. Patrick, caught to her hair with a cluster of fresh gardenias, and she carried white orchids, freesias and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Patrick, her sister's only attendant, wore a classic dress of aquamarine chiffon and carried violets and roses. Mr. Ralph Wilson Jones Jr. was his brother's best man.

At the reception afterward, Mrs. Robert Arneson of Oswego and Mrs. E. B. Day of Medford, aunt of the bride, poured, the bride's cake centering the table, was circled with a lei of white sweet peas.

Assisting in serving were Miss Betty Kimmel, Mrs. H. J. Irwin and Miss Nancy Day.

The couple will be at home after April 15 in Santa Cruz avenue at Menlo Heights, Cal. When they left for a wedding trip in the south, the bride was wearing a costume suit of beige wool with brown accessories.

The bride is well known in Roseburg, having been employed at the Douglas county welfare commission office, before her marriage.
