Football Schedule For Lane-Douglas League Adopted

The 1941 football schedule for the Lane-Douglas league was adopted Saturday at a meeting of the coaches and principals at Springfield, according to Coach Jim Davis of Roseburg high school, who was in attendance. The league, Coach Davis reports, has been expanded to include Sweethome and Lebanon. Coaches are well pleased with the new arrangement which provides a good balance, with all schools, except Reedsport, having student bodies of about equal size, ranging from 300 to 400 students. The longest distance to be traveled is only 140 miles.

The schedule of games for the entire league was adopted at Saturday's meeting and Roseburg's games are listed as follows: Sept. 26 — Sweethome here. Oct. 4 — At Reedsport. Oct. 10 — At Lebanon. Oct. 17 — University high here. Oct. 24 — Springfield here. Oct. 31 — At Cottage Grove. Nov. 11 — Grants Pass here. Nov. 20 — At Ashland. *Night games.

The Armistice Day game here with Grants Pass, and the Thanksgiving day game at Ashland probably will be afternoon games. Both are outside the league. Coach Davis reports he expects a 1941 team equal at least to the team which represented the local school during the 1940 season. He has seven lettermen returning for the coming season, together with a number of boys who played on the "scrubs" and with a year's
