HOME ECONOMICS CONFERENCE HELD IN ROSEBURG SATURDAY

On Saturday, March 29, the Home Economics club of the Roseburg senior high school was hostess for the annual district Home Economics club conference. Representatives numbering over 100 from following schools were present: Coos River, Cottage Grove, Crow Union high, Drain, Eugene, Gold Beach, Junction City, Myrtle Point, Oakland, Reedsport, Springfield, Yoncalla, and the Roseburg junior high. Other out of town guests were Miss Bertha Kohlman, state supervisor of home economics, and Rex Putnam, state school superintendent.

To begin the morning program, Miss White, the physical education teacher in junior and senior high school entertained the girls with games until 10 o'clock at which time they had group singing directed by Mrs. Floyd Lewis, director of music at senior high. At 10:15 Dorothy White, president of the Roseburg Home Economics club, Mr. Beard, principal of senior high, and Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction extended their welcomes to the girls. At 10:40, the capella choir sang two numbers, directed by Mrs. Lewis, the Perkins twins featured a tap dance, and Marion Church entertained with a violin solo, accompanied by Anita Young. At 11 o'clock Marshall Pengra, the guest speaker, addressed the group on "What is Expected of the Girl Who Has Studied Home-making" from the man's viewpoint. Miss Kohlman then gave the state club report and the group left for the hotel.

The luncheon was held in the Umpqua hotel banquet room. The Indian motif was used as the decoration scheme with little tepees and totem poles made of gum dross used as the center pieces. Little canoes filled with the thick paper held the favors. The luncheon program opened with saying of the grace by Rev. Perry Smith. Dorothy White presided with Evangeline Feyerisen introducing the guests. The toastmistress, Rubie Golden, introduced the toastmistresses and toasts from the following schools: Cottage Grove, Health; Reedsport, Happiness; Gold Beach, Dependability; Junction City, Co-operation; Yoncalla, Charm; Eugene, Home Living. Virginia Wolsk sang "Gypsy Love Song" accompanied by Mrs. Lewis. Miss Kohlman then extended her greetings and the girls' ensemble from senior high sang two numbers accompanied by Catherine Irving. The luncheon ended with the group singing "God Bless America."

At 2:00 the Triple Trio from junior high opened the afternoon program with two numbers. Ward Cummings entertained with a trumpet solo, "Scintillea." The girls were then divided into discussion groups and adjourned to different rooms where each had a specific topic to discuss. The girl adding the most to the discussion was then chosen by the group to represent them on the panel discussion which was led by Mr. Beard. The conference was then closed with singing of the state club song.

The Home Economics club extends their appreciation to the B. P. W., the Junior B. P. W. and the American Legion Auxiliary for cooperating by being represented by guests at the luncheon. The different committees and the chairman of the club that helped to make the conference possible were: Luncheon, Annie Collins; registration, Ella Mae Cloake; program, Betty Marsters; invitation, Lela Wilson; reception, Ila Mess; and Mrs. Watkins, who is teacher of the senior high home economics department and supervisor of the club.
