RALLY OF N. O. W. HELD HERE SATURDAY

Lilac circle No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft held a very enjoyable pep meeting Saturday at the I. O. O. F. hall with a large number of members from district No. 12 in attendance.

The meeting opened with an impressive drill, seating the guardian neighbor and officers and escorting Attorney B. L. Eddy to the platform.

The campfire was then lighted, the flag ceremony was held and the audience joined in singing of the national anthem.

The welcoming address bearing a message of welcome from Mayor A. J. Young was given by Attorney Eddy and the response was given by Cynthia Germond, Marie Register, of Eugene, who was scheduled to give the response, was unable to be present on account of illness.

The following program was enjoyed: Solo by Betty Marsters, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow; trumpet solo by Ward Cummings, accompanied by Betty Owen; violin solo by Mrs. Morris H. Roach, accompanied by Ruth Ann Ruhl and Georgene Shanklin, accompanied by Anita Young.

Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner and Field Representative Harry Massman were introduced by G. N. Winnie Hawn and given circle honors.

Twelve ladies attractively gowned in lace formals accompanied by little Marilyn Myers in a pink formal presented a beautiful gift to Mrs. Hiner from Lilac circle and in turn was given a lovely Easter basket and bunny by the grand guardian, Mrs. Hiner appointed Neighbor Lora Darby and Paul Beaver her assistants in the installation of the new officers.

The retiring officers were then escorted to the campfire and given the circle honors, after which the elective officers for the coming year were installed as follows: G. N. Ethel Beaver; P. G. N. Winnie Hawn; advisor, Laura Houshelt; magician, Mary McCuan; clerk, Cynthia Germond; attendant, Mildred Krom; inner sentinel, Augusta Merg; outer sentinel, Dorothy Aron; captain of the guards, P. H. Beaver; flag bearer, Lillie Lohr, manager, Lydia Hooper.

The new officers were seated with a beautiful drill by the guards and were given lovely corsages by Neighbor Mildred Krogel. A short talk was made by G. N. Beaver expressing her of appreciation of support and of the attendance of neighbors from Marshfield, Coquille, Cottage Grove, Eugene and Oakland.

Field Representative Massman was escorted to the campfire and presented the ivory gavel to Lilac circle No. 49, which was a great surprise, as Roseburg was visited by a very few points over Klamath Falls. The staff in a striking drill spelled out the letters N. O. W.

G. N. Hiner gave a splendid talk on the order and Neighbor Lora Darby was awarded her P. G. N. pink and Neighbors Germond and Hooper received gifts from Winnie Hawn for their perfect attendance the last year.

The retiring G. N. Winnie Hawn, received a lovely gift from the circle and presented by Neighbor Lydia Hooper. Neighbor

Hawn responded with a short talk thanking the members for their loyalty and support.

Talks were made by Dist. Banker Gillespie of Eugene; Dist. Advisor Newton, of Marshfield, and by Neighbor Chapman, of Cottage Grove, who extended a cordial invitation to the district convention to be held here in June.

District Guardian Lora Darby and District Manager Iva Taylor thanked all persons helping to contribute to this successful pep rally.

The board meetings was held on Monday with the Presbyterian open meetings beginning with the Tuesday session. An impressive memorial service was given for Mrs. W. L. Scott, formerly of Roseburg who died in Laramie, Wyo., Sunday and for Mrs. Travaille, former missionary to Siam who was supported by the Presbyterian and local missionary society, who recently died in Siam following three years of service in that country.

Following the meeting Tuesday, a very charming tea was held. The tea table was especially lovely in a pink and silver motif. Mrs. Morris H. Roach and Miss Jeannie Buick poured. Tuesday evening's meeting was unusually large and was greatly enjoyed as Miss Rachel Benfer, national field secretary of the board of national missions, New York City, was guest speaker. The society closed its 34th annual meeting on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, president of the local missionary society and vice-president of the Presbyterian society, was assisted in arrangements by Mrs. Earl Ulrich, who was hostess for the three-day affair and had charge of the tea Tuesday; Mrs. J. Roland Parker, decorations; Mrs. Morris H. Roach, Mrs. Homer Grow and Mrs. W. M. Chalmers, hospitalities; Mrs. Ida Bailey and Miss Margaret Clapp, registrations; Mrs. C. D. Fies, pilot cars.

The regular meeting of members of Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held at the home of William Doyle Wednesday evening.

Election of officers for the ensuing year was held and Eleanor Lewis was elected president of the group. Others elected were Helen Blodgett, vice-president; Lavola McMillen, recording secretary; Alice Gerot, corresponding secretary; Betty Guiley, treasurer, and Arlie Corbett, program chairman.

Tentative plans were made for a week-end trip to Bandon on April 19.

Plans were also made for celebration of Founder's day on April 30th and committees were appointed to arrange for a banquet and Ritual of Jewels ceremony at the Umpqua hotel.

The program assignments on "Art" was led by Alice Gerot and discussed by the group.

Those attending the meeting were Arlie Corbett, Jane Bowler, Dora Braughton, Helen Blodgett, Carmel Newland, Lavola McMillen, Frances Metzger, Wilma Doyle, Betty Guiley, Thelma Smith, Alice Gerot, Eleanor Lewis and Amanda Anderson.

The members will meet April 23rd at the home of Betty Guiley.

MINNE A. HOWARD HONORED AT SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. L. J. Houser entertained at a very charming surprise party Saturday, April 5th, honoring the seventy-seventh birthday anniversary of Mrs. Minnie A. Howard.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Howard, guest of honor, Jim Howard, Leland and L. J. Houser, Fred Green, Miss Dolma Grobe, Miss Dixie Harp and the hostess, Mrs. Houser.

The table was beautifully decorated in a pink and white motif. Spring flowers carried out the same color scheme and the birthday cake was also decorated in pink and white.

MRS. J. E. HENBEST ENTERTAINS CLUB ON THURSDAY EVENING

Mrs. J. E. Henbest entertained her bridge and sewing club at a delightful party Thursday evening at her home.

Following a most enjoyable social hour Mrs. Henbest served a lovely buffet supper to Mrs
