DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

"Go ye therefore and teach all nations." Here is the charter of the Christian missionary enterprise. In a single statement Jesus announces the aim, the field and the obligation of the church. The most compelling motive for Christian mission is the supremacy of Christ. His truth makes men and nations free. He is supreme in all authority, understanding and power. The world of our day is divided in opposing camps, each watchful of other's weakness. The rising tide of narrow nationalism and racial antagonism has filled the world with wild confusion, hopelessness and suffering. In Christ there is abundant life. He offers all who dare to follow authentic leadership and adequate power. What will the church do with the world's need and Christ's command. The pressure of our present world situation demands that we make a more earnest effort to understand all Jesus meant by His teaching about the kingdom of God, and as we understand to remember His promise. Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.
