American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. WALTER FISHER

Our motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

Umpqua unit is proud to announce the following new members who were honored at an initiation party Tuesday evening: Ethel Van Voorst, Gertrude Pierce, Iris Pierce, Ruth Ann Ruhl, Hildegarde Virginia and Audrey Roselund, Geraldine Merchant, Betty Barker, Mrs. Sam Carson and Mrs. Lee Merchant. Mrs. Claude Baker, unit president, assisted by Mrs. Eva Ferrier, Mrs. Victor Micelli, Mrs. Irving Riegal, Mrs. Clinton Gorthy and Mrs. Walter Fisher, presented the initiation ceremony. Most of the initiates are members of the new junior group of Umpqua unit. While these girls conduct their meetings individually and carry on all of their activities independently, they remain members of the parent group. Mrs. James Young serves as advisor. Since this is the first time in its history that Umpqua unit has fostered a junior group, Mrs. Baker has been highly commended by the department of Oregon for her success in this enterprise.

Tom Hartfiel Speaks On Child Delinquency

Following the initiation Tuesday evening, Mrs. Ned Dixon, department child welfare chairman, after a brief talk on local welfare problems, presented Tom Hartfiel, prominent local barrister, who gave a splendid talk on Child Delinquency. Highlights on Hartfiel address . . . Two chief causes for child delinquency may be found in the home and the community . . . in every community should be a well defined program for boys' and girls' recreation periods . . . supervised playgrounds . . . swimming pool . . . in the home, child should have certain duties and responsibilities . . . for the girls—training in sewing, cleaning, caring for clothes and room . . . for the boys . . . caring for the lawn, building fires, caring for their rooms, etc. Following Mr. Hartfiel's talk, Commander James Young, who presided over the joint meeting, pledged the support of Umpqua post and auxiliary to any civic activities for the benefit of child welfare.

Mothers' Day Annual Tea

The annual Mother's Day tea, sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary, will be held early in May at the spacious home of Dr. and Mrs. George Houck. The exact date will be announced later and Umpqua post mothers will be officially notified.

Activities of the Week

Activities of the week included a radio broadcast on the Child Welfare program of the Legion and auxiliary on Tuesday evening. Assisting in the program were Mrs. Ned Dixon, child welfare department chairman and Mrs. Claude Baker, unit president.

Friday night, Mrs. Irving Riegal and Mrs. Walter Olmscheid were joint hostesses at a dance at the Veterans' Facility. These dances, which are held monthly, are among the most enjoyable events at the facility. Auxiliary members are assisted at the dances by women of other civic groups among the most active being the Business and Professional Women's club. We are very grateful for this help.

Our National Program

As the coming of spring brings new battles overseas and new dangers to the peace of America, the war absorbs more and more of the interest of the American public. Other things seem to matter less and less. Unless America is secure, what else can matter?

Therefore, the things the auxiliary is doing to help make America secure are of first interest to the public. The emergency voluntary service program brings this home to every community. Americanism and national defense activities also have direct relation to the war situation. Organization of emergency service corps is going forward in auxiliary units, in cooperation with their Legion posts, the registered women being assigned to duties for which they are best fitted. The national commander of the Legion was authorized to call a test mobilization by action of the national executive committee at a recent meeting. The auxiliary, as well as the Legion, will be ready to respond to this call.

Service Shop Remains Open Mrs. John Harding, unit finance chairman, has announced that the service shop which is located adjacent to the Douglas National bank, will be open as usual on each Saturday. Any donations for the shop may be left at the Umpqua hotel or Fisher's store.

Carpenter, Mrs. Nance Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Floyd Lewis and Mrs. J. M. Judd, committee in charge, were highly complimented for the interesting affair. The tables were lovely with bouquets of pastel-colored spring flowers and tall lighted tapers. The affair opened with a patriotic song, flag salute and the collect was read by Verna Carothers.

The president, Amanda Anderson, who graciously presided at the banquet, introduced Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinniger to the group. Mr. Pinniger, new secretary of the Roseburg chamber of commerce, was guest speaker of the evening. Other guests were introduced at the table.

Mrs. Hugh Whipple, in her usual charming manner, sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. Frances Lintott. Group singing was led by Mrs. Floyd Lewis and a trio consisting of Lois Brown, flute; Marian Church, violin, and Bette Owen, piano, entertained with several lovely numbers.

As is customary at this dinner, a representative from every civic organization in the city attended and gave a short comprehensive review of their respective club work during the year. W. C. Harding, retiring secretary of the chamber of commerce, who was unable to be present, sent a very interesting letter, which was read by Lavola McMillin. Percy Croft, representing Mayor A. J. Young, told of the work done in grading lots near the Rose school to provide a much needed playground for children of this city. Marshall Penner reported on the swimming pool fund stating that $1200 had been placed in the bank from various clubs and organizations and the city is now seeking federal aid in the form of a grant. The Junior Woman's club was presented by Mrs. Clifford Smith, who read the annual report of the club's work. D. E. Carr, Kiwanis president, reported that his club's ideals were spiritual rather than material and that one of the club's chief objectives was aid to the underprivileged child.

Mrs. Claude Baker, American Legion auxiliary president, and James Young, Legion commander, gave an insight into the many projects of their organizations including the child welfare project, citizenship training groups, radio programs, memorial drive at the facility and Camp Fire groups.

Mrs. W. R. Brown, president of the Roseburg Woman's club, pointed out that the Woman's Club Circle No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet at the I. O. O. F. hall at eight o'clock Monday evening to celebrate the annual birthday of the order. Guardian Neighbor Ethel Beaver will present a fine program and eighteen will take part from Edgewater.
