POET'S CORNER

JUST PASSTIME

I've tried my luck on many streams
And got a few, but pshaw,
I'm going to the riverbank
To fish the old Umpqua.

My catch so far is not so hot
Nor large as one I saw,
But still I'm going to try again
To fish the old Umpqua.

Out in the sun I try to stay
I'm brown as any squaw,
But what care I, when I can go
To fish the old Umpqua.

But though the big one got away
Or for me gave a straw,
I am content to try once more
To fish the old Umpqua.

Now that my stay is near a close
My health improved, ha, ha,
I hope that soon I may return
To fish the old Umpqua.
Arthur L. Simmons.

BEWARE OF WORMS

Inside you or your child

Do you know that roundworms can cause great distress? And they are so easy to "catch" that thousands of grown-ups and children have these bowel worms without even recognizing the symptoms. So watch out for these signs: Flinching, itchy nose and seat, uneasy stomach, restless sleep. If you even suspect roundworms, get Jayne's Vermifuge to drive them out before they can "get set" and cause trouble. Jayne's is America's leading proprietary worm medicine; used by millions, for over a century. It expels stubborn worms, yet acts very gently. When no worms are there, it works just as a mild laxative. Play safe! Ask for Jayne's Vermifuge! At all drug stores.

Claude B. Walgamuth Funeral Services Held

Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Roseburg Undertaking company chapel for Claude Bremer Walgamuth, 36, who was killed last week in a logging accident at Myrtle Point.

He was born in Faulk county, S. Dakota, Nov. 20, 1904, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walgamuth. He was a graduate of Brookings, S. D., agricultural college. He was united in marriage, Feb. 1, 1933, to Mary Alice Knaggs of Bandle, S. D., and was engaged in farming in that state until 1936, when he moved with his family to a ranch near Tenable.

Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Joan; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walgamuth of South Dakota, and a brother, Lloyd.

Among out-of-town relatives attending the services were Mrs. Amelia Patterson, Los Angeles; Mrs. Beulah McGeary, Kelso, Wash.; Mrs. Margaret Siebrasse, Cathlamet, Wash.
