PUBLIC INVITED TO OLD-FASHIONED ARTS BENEFIT TEA WEDNESDAY

Next Wednesday marks the date of one of the finest exhibits to be held here in years, when the Roseburg W. C. T. U. sponsors an old-fashioned arts exhibit and benefit tea at the Methodist church parlors from two to five-thirty o'clock. The usual benefit price will be charged and the proceeds will go partly to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis and to the state activities of the organization.

Some very rare antiques will be on display in addition to the exhibiting and demonstrating of the old-fashioned arts such as spinning, weaving, etc. Quilts, rugs, needlepoint, button collections, china, Bibles and numerous articles will be exhibited. Old-fashioned gowns will be worn by the committees in charge of the affair. Mrs. J. D. Osborn and Mrs. V. J. Miceil are joint chairmen of the event with Mrs. C. H. Wickham as entertainment chairman. The public is cordially invited to attend.

WOMEN'S STUDY CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

YONCALLA, April 25.—Members of the Yoncalla Women's Study club were graciously entertained by Mrs. Leona Merk at her attractive home Thursday afternoon, April 17. At 1:45 a delicious dessert luncheon was served by the hostess with Mrs. Fred Merk and Mrs. Edgar Richards assisting.

The rooms were decorated with artistic bouquets from the lovely flower beds surrounding the home. Following the social hour, Mrs. Fred Merk played a piano solo, "Gypsy Rondo," after which all joined in group singing of the old familiar songs.

The regular program for study consisted of instructive papers on Mexico. Mrs. Earl Brant briefly reviewed the Aztec and Mayan civilizations. Mrs. Richards described Mexico City, the oldest city in North America. Mrs. Dare Kingery read a paper on "Status of Women in Latin America."

Members responding to roll call were Mrs. Edgar Richards, Mrs. Leona Merk, Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. Harvey Cockeram, Mrs. Earl Strong, Mrs. Jess Lasswell, Mrs. John Kruse, Mrs. Ervin Rice, Mrs. Lillis Brawn, Mrs. Leslie Chapman, Mrs. Dare Kingery, Mrs. Sherman Chapman, Mrs. Earl Brant, and the following guests, Mrs. Frank Madden, Mrs. Zedie Bishop and Mrs. Fred Merk.

BIRTHDAY PARTY IS GIVEN REV. MR. SHAFFER

CANYONVILLE, April 22.—Saturday evening, the student body and faculty of the Canyonville Bible academy, together with friends of the institution, gathered in the reception room, in honor of the birthday of the Reverend A. M. Shaffer. A decorated room in streamlined effect of red, white and blue, with a profusion of flowers everywhere, was the center of the party activity, where all kinds of games, and stunts of various types were enjoyed.

A big cake, surrounded with burning tapers was brought into the room after the games were finished, and two candles above the mantel, bordering a huge evergreen wreath were lighted. At a signal, the wreath opened, disclosing a fine present from the students and faculty for Mr. Shaffer. There were many other gifts, also. Just before the refreshments, Bob Shaffer announced the climax of the evening—a recording made by the Dunbars, missionaries in Argentina. Mrs. Dunbar is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer. This record, a birthday greeting, and a heart to heart talk by different members of the Dunbar family, was given over the loud speaker, and the family circle seemed complete, with their voices in the room. The affair was sponsored by the senior class.

COTERIE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

GLENDALE, April 22.—The Glendale Coterie club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mel Davis near Wolf Creek. Mrs. G. W. Hopper was assisting hostess.
