Mrs. Virgil Smith spent Thursday visiting relatives in Oakland.

Mrs. Helena Espudillo and Miss Olivia Todd have been hired to teach the grade school the coming year. They both taught at Curtin last year and come well recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Deardorff of Oakland were visiting relatives in Wilbur Thursday.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

WHAT TIME IS IT, JASON?

With Major Hoople Mr. Scott Lumber Mill, Sutherlin, Again Hums

SUTHERLIN, Ore., April 29.—The Mt. Scott Lumber company has resumed operations with S. A. Scherman and O. B. Scherman in charge of the mill. At present twenty-six men are employed with the expectations of more being added in the near future. The capacity is 50,000 feet per day. The logs are trucked in with five trucks. The Schermans have purchased a new Caterpillar and are going to do their own logging.

Myrtle Creek

MYRTLE CREEK, April 24.—Born, Saturday, April 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Elza Golden, a son, Everett Goldie.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bailey and small son, Robert, of Cody, Calif., arrived last Friday for a short visit with Mr. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Clara Bailey. They return Wednesday. On Saturday Mrs. Bailey's younger son, Everett, with Mrs. Bailey and their son, Dwin, came in from their home in Medford and enjoyed a pleasant week-end visit with home folks, thus making a complete family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thackrey have returned from visits at the Lookingglass and Eugene, respectively. At the latter place Mrs. Thackrey visited with a sister, Mrs. Mullen, whom she had not seen for a long time.

A California tourist returning south last Sunday afternoon, came to grief on a curve halfway between the Bill Weaver ranch and Fitzpatrick's auto camp. He had picked up a hitchhiker who was relieving the owner at the wheel. Making the curve too fast the car went over and turned completely around. No one was hurt but the car was badly wrecked.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dailey have been enjoying ripe strawberries from their kitchen garden for two weeks or more.

Mrs. R. M. Stearns of Klamath Falls was a week-end visitor in Myrtle Creek.

Mrs. Bess Cooper spent Sunday with Oakland friends.

The funeral of Mrs. Mattie Selig was attended by a large number of friends and relatives. The ladies of the local chapter O. E. S. attended in a body and at the graveside conducted their regular funeral service. Out of town relatives attending were, Ernest Simmons, Shasta City, Calif., a brother; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vance, Ethel Vance and Mrs. Hazel Currier, a nephew and niece, all of Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Bernice Simmons De Ross, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Clayton, Glendale Junction. The California relatives started on their return journey immediately following the funeral Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Lillie Sharpe had a birthday last Sunday and on Saturday afternoon, a group of neighbor ladies gave her a little party and a dime shower. Refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed by the following ladies: Sarah Chaney, Mary Stelzer, Bertha Russell, Myrtle Thackrey, Josephine Coryell, Hannah Aldredge, Lulu Wright, Emma Ledgerwood, Abbie Bond, Jennie Buell and the hostess, Mrs. Sharpe.

Camas Valley

CAMAS VALLEY, April 29.—Stephen Combs is working at a logging camp up Rock creek.

Willie Corder of Reedsport spent the week-end visiting friends here. Dewey and Geneva Huntley took him back to Reedsport Sunday, spending the day at the coast.

Mrs. M. E. Lillie and Mrs. Mayher of Bandon spent several days last week at the home of Mrs. Lillie's daughter, Mrs. R. L. Martindale. Jim Combs went down after them Sunday and J. R. and Oran Standley took them home Saturday. The men attended to business matters in Coos during the day.

Mrs. Philip Packard is candling eggs two days a week for Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McFall.

Glenn Lamm, who worked for a week or two at the McFall place, has gone to work at the Fish logging camp on the CCC road a short distance past the Bradford forestry station. He has the job of "whistle punk," that is, a great many start in their logging career with it. It is, however, quite a responsible place as the work is sending the signals to and from the woods by whistles.

Charlie Parrott of Fort Worth, Texas, is visiting at the home of his brother, Jack Parrott. It is the first time the brothers have seen each other for forty-five years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eckles spent Sunday at Dillard attending church and Sunday school. Mr. Eckles draws an illustration of the Sunday school lesson with crayon which is displayed each Sunday on an easel, and following the class period gives a very interesting and instructive summary of the day's lesson. Rev. Garboden invited him to bring his picture and give his talk at the Dillard Sunday school Sunday.

Donald Roth, who worked during the winter on a ranch near Salem, is home now and has a job at the Johnson logging camp down the canyon.

Sherman McEee, of Brockway, Chester Hercher and Harry Davis, of Dillard, were enjoying a fishing trip down the canyon Sunday.

Here From Days Creek — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Duncan and children, Marjorie, Loren and Bobbie, of Days Creek, spent Monday in this city shopping and visiting.
