through the Persian gulf, which opens into the Indian ocean, beyond the Mediterranean or its eastern entrance. That situation will bear watching. It looks like Iraq (with its oil) is one of the coming hot spots.

FROM "informed sources" (meaning, as often pointed out here, someone who is in the know but dares not be quoted directly) in Vichy comes this one today: "Francis Pietri, French ambassador to Spain, has been recalled to confer with the Petain government about the possibility of a German drive through Spain against Gibraltar."

Nobody knows (possibly not even he) what Hitler will do next, but the logic of the situation indicates that he will move decisively to shut the British fleet out of the Mediterranean. The way to do that is to SHUT THE GATES, Gibraltar is the Mediterranean's western gate and Suez the eastern.

James Roosevelt Reaches China To 'Learn' About War

CHUNGKING, China, April 29.—(AP)—Capt. James Roosevelt of the United States marines arrived by plane today accompanied by Major Gerald C. Thomas for conferences with government leaders and announced they would go from here to Cairo to observe the British-axis African campaign.

The president's eldest son received an enthusiastic welcome at the airport. Replying to greetings from government representatives, he said: "I bring the president's greetings to all in Chungking. Personally I consider being here a great privilege."

Roosevelt later told newsmen he hoped to observe the African campaign as far as Ethiopia. He said rumors that he came to Chungking as an adviser were "entirely false; I came here to learn."

The captain added that he and Major Thomas were particularly interested in observing military ordnance and transportation. The United States attitude toward China, he asserted, could be described best by the phrase: "We won't let our friends down."

Defense Savings Drive Launched By U. S. Treasury

WASHINGTON, April 29.—(AP)—Five thousand separate radio announcements yesterday inaugurated the most intensive selling campaign in the peacetime history of the nation, as the treasury began its dime-to-thousands defense savings drive.

The new securities, of which the treasury hopes to sell at least $3,000,000,000 in the next 18 months, go on sale Thursday morning in 16,000 postoffices and several thousand banks. Later department stores and thousands of other places may handle them.

The new securities, planned to help meet part of the huge preparedness bill, were tailored purposely to fit the purse of every American. They include 10 cent stamps for children, baby bonds for the average man, and larger bonds, up to $10,000 denominations, for wealthier persons, trust funds and businesses.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Morgenthau and Postmaster General Walker will give the defense savings drive an official sendoff in a special radio program Wednesday night. The president will lay his money down to buy the first bond.

Officials indicated no effort would be made to get people to put large amounts in defense savings at once. Instead, the plan is to get the public to purchase smaller amounts on weekly or monthly plans, so that over a period of time they will buy more than if they splurged immediately.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS Many men argue that in the realm of religious experience and of moral values there are no absolute standards. St. Paul does not belong to their number. He was not interested in comparing himself with other men. He sought for favorable judgment of the Lord. "We labor that we may be accepted of Him." St. Paul had been assailed in the church at Corinth by jealous men who coveted his position. They compared themselves with him to his disadvantage, denying that he was an apostle or entitled to more respect than they. His reply to this epistle is vigorous and convincing. He vindicates his apostleship by appeal to his record and to his consciousness of his divine appointment. Comparison of ourselves with others is never wise. We are, all of us, constituted that we can always commend ourselves by comparison with others, but after all of what value is such commendation? God will judge us by His own standards. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth. Therefore a man measuring himself by himself and comparing himself with himself is not wise. Amen.

Defense Bonds, Stamps Go On Sale Here Thursday

The United States defense saving bonds and postal savings stamps will be placed on sale in the Roseburg post office Thursday, May 1, as part of the national effort to make America impregnable.

The new defense savings bond is similar to the familiar "baby bond," of which more than five billion dollars worth have been bought by more than two and a half million Americans since 1935. A defense bond may be purchased May 1, or thereafter, for $18.75. In ten years, this bond will be worth $25. This is an increase of 33 1/3 per cent, equal to an interest return of 2.9 per cent, compounded semi-annually. Any time after sixty days from date of purchase, the bond may be redeemed for cash, in accordance with a table of redemption values printed on the face of the bond.

To spread investments widely among all the people in America, a limit of $5,000 has been set on the amount of these bonds to be bought by any one person in one year. The bonds are in denominations of $25, $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, all of which are sold for 75 per cent of their maturity value and all of which mature in ten years.

For larger investors who can afford to purchase up to $50,000 worth of bonds a year, the treasury department has issued two additional kinds of defense savings bonds, but these will be sold only through banks and by direct mail from Washington, D. C. They are intended for associations, trustees and corporations, as well as individual purchasers.

For the smaller investor who wants to buy a government bond on an easy payment plan, the postoffice will have a new series of postal savings stamps, at 10c, 25c, 50c, $1 and $5. Each purchaser of any savings stamp higher than 10c will be given, free of charge, an attractive pocket album in which to paste his stamps until he has enough to buy a $25 bond or one of higher denomination.
