They have travelled more than 2,000 miles since the first of January, presenting more than 60 programs during that period of time. The concert will be open to the public. No admission will be charged, but an offering will be taken.

Finlay Breaks Own Mark in Hurdles

Jim Finlay, star athlete of Roseburg high school, broke his own state record in running the high hurdles in 16.2 seconds at the district No. 4 track meet in Eugene yesterday. Finlay, who broke previous state records in last year's meet, bettered his own time by four-tenths of a second. He also won first place in low hurdles.

The Roseburg team, although competing in only a part of the events, finished in fifth place with 17 points, only 13 points behind University high of Eugene, and ahead of several schools with a complete list of entries.

Schools participated and placed in the following order: Springfield, Eugene high, Cottage Grove, University high, Roseburg, June tion City, Creswell, Oakridge, Mohawk and Thurston.

Two Roseburg team members qualified to participate in the state track meet next week at Corvallis.

Posse Seeks Gunman as His Second Victim Dies

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., May 9.—(AP)—Rose Destree, 17, died at 5 a. m. today as Under-sheriff James W. Stocker led a posse of 40 men in search of a gunman who had named as the man who killed Mrs. Jean Wells, 20, then turned his gun on her. Stocker said an informant reported Alfred Wells, former convict, was hiding in a cabin in Cable canyon, seven miles north. He said he was told Alfred's missing brother, David Raymond Wells, 24, was held captive in the cabin.

Magistrate Pays 5c Debt After 57 Years

A debt of five cents, contracted 57 years ago, was paid in Roseburg yesterday by Frank B. Tichenor, former Roseburg resident, now justice of the peace at Port Orford. More than a half century ago Tichenor was playing marbles with Walter Critser, now a retired rancher living in Roseburg, and arranged a trade of a coveted agate taw. Lacking sufficient "dobbies" to make up the trade, he agreed to pay a nickel on the balance. The two men never met again until yesterday, when Tichenor recalled and paid the debt.

WOOL

BOSTON, May 9.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Sales along Summer street this week have been maintained on a very firm basis. Sales have been chiefly of foreign wools. "Buying in the west has lessened as prices strengthened slightly. Shearing is being delayed by unusually prolonged rains. Best fine wools have been taken at the equivalent of $1.03-1.05, clean landed Boston. "Manufacturers have had opportunities to accept considerable civilian business but are reluctant to add to their back logs of business which will require six months to clear. "Foreign Markets are without material change for the week. "Mohair is quiet but very firm."
