MRS. L. KOHLHAGEN, SR., ENTERTAINS AT CHARMING SHOWER FOR MISS BROWN

Mrs. L. Kohlhagen, Sr., entertained at one of the most charming parties of the week, when she invited a group of friends to a two-course 6:30 o'clock supper at her lovely home on Military street in compliment to Miss Lois Brown, popular bride-elect.

The patriotic motif was beautifully carried out in the dining, living and music rooms by the use of large bouquets of red roses, white snowballs and blue larkspur and iris. Blue and white tapers flanked the bowl of red roses on the dining table, while the clever placecard-favors were also patriotic in design with the guests names written in red, white and blue ink. A beautiful rosebud was given to each guest. The patriotic colors were also carried out in the menu.

Mrs. Kohlhagen was assisted in serving by Mrs. E. S. Hall and Mrs. Harold Bellows with Mrs. phine Baird receiving the guests. J. A. Caraway and Miss Josephine Baird assisting about the rooms.

Covers were placed for Miss Brown, guest of honor, her mother, Mrs. W. S. Brown, and Mrs. P. W. Heardsley (mother of the bridegroom-elect), both of Corvallis; Mrs. Floyd Lewis, Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. Harold Bellows; Mrs. Margaret Watkins, Miss Gladys H. Strong, Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Carol Carness, Miss Alice Ueland, Miss Josephine Baird, Miss Marjorie Chester, Miss Mary Holaday, Miss Undene Crockett and the hostess, Mrs. Kohlhagen.

Little Stephen Allen Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hall, presented the beautiful crystal shower gifts to Miss Brown. Stephen was attired in a costume to represent "Uncle Sam" and brought the gifts into the room in a beautifully decorated basket placed on his red coaster wagon.

As Miss Brown opened her first gift of crystal, Mrs. J. A. Caraway read an original poem of the future life of the bride-elect and bridegroom-elect. The poem was written by Miss Alice Ueland. Following the opening of the many lovely crystal gifts, visiting and games were enjoyed.

Miss Brown will become the bride of Robert Beardsley at Corvallis on June 21.

Married at Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mitchell

A very beautiful April wedding, which is of great interest in Roseburg, took place Saturday evening at the Federated Presbyterian church at Whittier, Calif., when Miss Marjorie Singleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. Singleton, of 601 Terence Place, Whittier, became the bride of Howard Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, of 511 Michigan avenue, Whittier. Reverend Willard Wylie performed the impressive single ring ceremony in the presence of three hundred guests. The church was attractively arranged with Easter lilies for the occasion.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a floor-length white satin bridal gown, trimmed with lace and fashioned with long sleeves and a train. Her tulle, full length veil, was attached to a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweetpeas and gardenias encircling an orchid.

Mrs. Theodore Koopmans, of La Crescenta, was matron of honor and was lovely in a gown of blue French organdy. She carried a bouquet of white sweetpeas and pink carnations. Mrs. Harold Bemis and Miss Dorothy Hubbard, bridesmaids, were charming in gowns of pink French organdy and carried bouquets of pink sweetpeas and blue delphinium. Marjane Singleton, sister of the bride, was lovely in a frock of blue taffeta.

Lawrence Smith acted as best man for the bridegroom, Ray and Walter Mitchell, brothers of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith played the wedding marches and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Orville Burns who sang, "Because," "At Dawning" and "Oh, Promise Me."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for a hundred guests at the beautiful home of the bride's parents, Miss Helen Mitchell, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Earl Burr presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Miss Barbara and Miss Louise Benson, Miss Wynona Burr, Miss Hazel Boster, Mrs. James Ralston and Mrs. Margaret Woods. The rooms of the Singleton home were gorgeously decorated with bouquets of colorful spring blossoms. The many beautiful wedding gifts were displayed in one large room of the home.

The bride was graduated from Whittier union high school and from Pasadena junior college. She is well known in Roseburg, having visited here frequently with her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton, and her uncles, Ford Singleton and L. M. Lilly. Her mother, nee Marie Lilly, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lilly, of Corvallis, formerly of Glide. She is a sister of L. M. Lilly of this city.

The bridegroom was graduated from Whittier union high school and from Pasadena junior college and is now employed by a large aluminum company in Los Angeles. Mrs. Mitchell is employed by the gas company in Whittier. Following a wedding trip in the south, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will return to Whittier to make their home at 401 North Greeleaf avenue.
