FRANCES LOUISE WIMBERLY AND ROBERT J. HEALY ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

CORVALLIS, May 17.—Miss Frances Louise Wimberly, only daughter of Judge and Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of Roseburg, announced her engagement to Robert James Healy, of Mount Clair, New Jersey, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Healy, of Portland, at a charming fireside party at the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority house in Corvallis Monday evening.

Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly acted as hostess for the charming surprise party and was assisted by Mrs. Richards, house mother of Kappa Alpha Theta, who cut ices. Miss Jeanne Horton, Miss Mary Blegg, both of Portland, and Miss Sally McLellan and Miss Frances Ann Mott, of Salem, served.

The bride-elect is a charming member of the younger set of this city and at Corvallis, where she has won outstanding honors during her four years at Oregon State College. She will be graduated from the college this year. Mr. Healy attended Grant high school, Portland University and Oregon State college and is now engaged as an engineer for the Curtis Wright Airplane corporation at Patterson, New Jersey. He makes his home at Mount Clair.

The engagement was written on parchment scrolls tied with ribbons the color of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and the flowers used, pansies and violets, were the flowers of the sorority and fraternity of the couple. The marriage has been planned for this summer.

INTER-SE STUDY CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING ON TUESDAY

Mrs. Jay Young entertained the Inter-Se Study club at a charming one o'clock luncheon Tuesday at her home at Melrose. A beautiful lace cloth covered the table centered with a dainty arrangement of wild lilac and Dutch iris.

Mrs. R. R. Brand, club chairman for the last year, was honored by the club presenting a beautiful gift to her. Mrs. B. A. Mellis, club chairman for the coming year and also program chairman, distributed the very excellent material for next year's study. The club will study the Pan American countries and has adopted the documentary material for the "Good Neighbor" tour of the General Federation of Women's clubs as the basis for this study. Attractive programs for the coming year, made by Mrs. James Davis, were given the club members. These were cleverly arranged in the form of a steamship ticket for the "Good Neighbor" tour.

Interesting roll-call topics were given by Mrs. E. S. Hall and Mrs. Charles Doerner. The last of the year's reports on Nobel prize winners was given by Mrs. V. V. Harpham, who gave a very well-prepared and intensely interesting report of the life of Pearl Buck. Unusual material in the form of letters and pictures from personal friends of Mrs. Buck were presented by Mrs. Harpham and much enjoyed by the group.

There will be no study meetings until fall, but the club members will meet at the home of Mrs. Brand in the near future at which time they will make infant garments for use at the Mercy hospital in response to a need described to the group by Mrs. Charles Doerner.

Those enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Young included: Mrs. Clyde Beard, Mrs. R. R. Brand, Mrs. Charles Doerner, Mrs. Paul Geddes and baby daughter, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. Ray B. Hampton, Mrs. V. V. Harpham, Mrs. Robert Hawley, Mrs. Bruce Mellis, Mrs. C. M. Stark, and Mrs. Earl Ulrich.
