

Eggs Fly In Row When Oregon Nine Loses to Huskies

By the Associated Press

The northern division Pacific Coast conference baseball title race developed into a three-way tussle yesterday when Washington downed the leading Oregon team, 6 to 3, at Seattle to come within a half-game of first place.

The idle Oregon State team, currently in third place, is only a game and a half from the top.

In another conference game yesterday at Pullman, Washington State climbed out of the cellar by downing Idaho, 9 to 2.

Eggs sailed in the Oregon-Washington game as overheated tempers carried over from Monday's game when an argument occurred over a Washington player being called safe at first in the Huskies ninth-inning winning rally.

Yesterday's egg shower came when Coach Howard Hobson and Oregon players vigorously protested a reversed decision against the team. Eggs grazed Hobson and one spattered outfielder Bill Carrey's back.

The outburst came from the stands in the sixth inning after two Oregon runners scored when the umpire called Chuck Clifford's bunt safe. The decision then was reversed and the fireworks started. Oregon protested and the eggs followed. When play was resumed, Clifford struck out.

Oregon opened the scoring with two runs in the third, but Washington tied it up in its half and took a good lead with three runs in the fourth on two singles, a walk and a triple.

At Pullman, Henry Bushman, W. S. C. fielder converted into a pitcher, tossed a six-hitter to beat Idaho.

The close title race now hinges on Oregon's final two games with Oregon State and Washington's four-game invasion of Pullman and Moscow.

Rainiers Downed By Oaks; Portland Again in Cellar

By the Associated Press

The Seattle Rainiers, Pacific Coast league baseball champions, went back into a hitting slump last night, bowing to Oakland, 7 to 3, before Salveson's five-hit pitching.

After achieving moderate success on a southern tour, Portland returned home for the first time in two weeks and promptly lapsed again into last place, losing an 11-inning game to Hollywood, 6 to 3. The Beavers got only five safe blows altogether, to 12 for Hollywood.

Sacramento's system of concentrated assault paid off with another victory. The Senators scored six runs in one swoop and took the series opener from Los Angeles, 7 to 5. Thus they re-concocted the same formula which twice licked San Francisco Sunday. By their performance the leading Solons gained further ground on the rest of the circuit.

Seals, the large southpaw for whom San Francisco paid the Detroit Tigers a fancy figure, returned his biggest dividend yet by limiting San Diego to three singles and no bases on balls. He had a no-hitter in hand until the Padres got the first two hits in the eighth. The Seals cracked three San Diego hurlers for 16 hits to win, 9 to 0.

against Higoe and nicking Kimball in the eighth for six runs. The St. Louis Cardinals, cut down, 6-4, in 11 innings by the Phils remained a half-game behind the Dodgers in won-lost figuring although holding onto the official percentage lead.

McCormick smacked a three-run homer with two out in the ninth to give the Cincinnati Reds a 9-6 victory over the Boston Braves.

Vaughan settled a see-saw game between the New York

Giants and Pittsburgh in favor of the Pirates, 7-5, with a two-run homer in the seventh.

The Athletics ambushed Harder, undefeated previously with four victories, and whipped the Cleveland Indians, 6-5.

The second-place Chicago White Sox polished off a sweep of their three-game series at Washington with Thornton Lee holding the Senators to six hits for a 5-2 victory.

Earl Johnson, southpaw star of the Boston Red Sox, held the Detroit Tigers to four hits and shut them out for eight innings to win, 4-2.

The St. Louis Browns handed the Yankees a 10-9 decision on a platter garnished with no less than six errors.
