Mrs. C. H. Beard Presents Pupils In Charming Recital on Saturday

A charming piano recital was enjoyed Saturday evening by a large group of friends and relatives of the pupils, when Mrs. C. H. Beard presented her piano pupils at the lovely home of Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, on South Main street.

The pupils showed credible poise and played with commendable tone and interpretation. Their playing showed their sincere effort and careful training. Marked advancement in playing facility and beauty of expression was noted in the playing of those who had been presented in former annual recitals. The numbers were played by pupils having studied but a few months to those having been in piano training for several years. Dorothy Busch was especially commended for her faithful work and number and variety of pieces memorized.

A very pleasing variety was added to the evening of music by the talent of Mrs. Floyd Lewis, soprano, and Miss Betty Jean Byrd, reader. Mrs. Lewis always a favorite with Roseburg audiences for her sincere personality and charming voice, sang two lovely numbers. Miss Byrd, high school graduate of last year, gave two well-received musical readings. Accompaniments for Mrs. Lewis and Miss Byrd were played by Mrs. Beard.
