D. A. R. MEETING IS LARGE AND CHARMING AFFAIR OF MONDAY

Umpqua chapter of the D. A. R. held a very interesting and charming meeting Monday afternoon at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse with Mrs. T. Leland Brown, of The Dalles, as guest speaker on the subject of "Early American Art."

Mrs. George M. Brown, mother-in-law of the guest speaker, acted as program chairman for the occasion with Mrs. L. E. Goodbourn and Mrs. William Bell receiving the guests and members.

The clubhouse was lovely with bouquets of colorful spring flowers. Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin, flower, graciously presided and the pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. William Bell and the prayer, following the saying of the Creed, was given by Mrs. R. H. Grinstead.

Mrs. George M. Brown introduced her daughter-in-law, Mrs. T. Leland Brown, who gave an intensely interesting and charming talk on "Early American Glass." Mrs. Brown brought with her from The Dalles a large assortment of her glass collection and following her talk, the members and guests enjoyed looking at the exhibit. Also adding to the interest of the occasion was the number of early American glass articles brought to the meeting by Roseburg women. Mrs. Brown is considered an authority on early American glass and her talk and exhibit was one of the most outstanding highlights of the D. A. R. club year. Nearly a hundred members and guests enjoyed the interesting meeting.

Mrs. Brown was accompanied to Roseburg by her husband, Attorney T. Leland Brown. They left on Tuesday for their home in The Dalles.

SEWING CLUB ENJOYS POTLUCK LUNCHEON AT MYERS HOME WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Willis Myers entertained her sewing club at a very delightful potluck luncheon Wednesday at her beautiful new home on the South Umpqua river.

The members of the Home Economics club of the Riverside grange and the members of the Garden Valley Women's club enjoyed a charming one o'clock no-hostess luncheon at the latter's clubhouse Thursday.

The table and room were beautifully decorated with bouquets of roses, snapdragons and other flowers. Covers were placed for Mrs. C. T. Tipton, Mrs. Ruby Shook, Mrs. Eldon Ogle, Mrs. E. G. Cloake, Mrs. John Marks, Jr., Miss Pearl Jones, Mrs. Hannah Cook, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. Harvey Ewens,

Mrs. Walter Crosier, Mrs. W. D. Love, Mrs. Emma Williams, Mrs. John Sinclair, Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr., Mrs. Clem Schneider and Mrs. A. N. Schneider.

Following the luncheon games and visiting were enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours.

N. OF W. MEMBERS AND FAMILIES ENJOY POTLUCK SUPPER MONDAY EVENING

Lilac circle No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft members and their families enjoyed a delightful potluck supper Monday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.

A specially decorated table with a beautiful birthday cake honored members having birthdays in April, May and June. Attractive corsages graced each place.

A fine attendance was present for the lodge meeting, which followed. Two applications for membership were favorably received and accepted for initiation. The two are Florence Lucille Sleverts and Lottie Alta Smith.

Neighbors Cora Dourte and Chauncey Dunn were installed as managers by District Guardian Lora Darby and Mildred Krogel assisting.

Neighbor McCuan, Thimble club president, on behalf of the club presented the lodge with a gift of silverware. A large box of dishes was given to the Salvation Army.

The next meeting will be June 2, at which time the annual memorial service honoring departed members will be held.

MRS. W. J. OLMSCHIED ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. W. J. Olmschied very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming one o'clock luncheon at the Hotel Rose Tuesday afternoon, followed by contract bridge at the attractive home of the hostess on North Jackson street. Cecil Brunner roses formed a pretty motif for the occasion.

"SHIP-WRECK" PARTY IS CHARMING AFFAIR OF MONDAY EVENING

Members of the Junior Woman's club entertained their husbands and invited guests at one of the most delightful parties of the year Monday evening at the clubhouse.

The clubhouse was decorated to represent a shipwreck and the guests were costumed as castaways on an island. The island motif was carried out on the buffet table, which was covered by ferns and decorated with sea shells, tapers in green bottles, fish floats and S. O. S. signs. An iron anchor, ship model and deck ropes were used in the room.

Relay games were played and prizes were awarded. Contract bridge was also enjoyed with Mrs. Ralph Herman and H. Schwartzkopf winning the high scores.

Mrs. Harold Hoyt, Mrs. Ralph Herman and Mrs. Ralph Rodley were in charge of the party, which proved one of the most successful and enjoyable events of the club year. The invitations to the party were hand-painted and hand-printed by Mrs. Charles Ostrander and Mrs. R. Schwartzkopf. The door prize was won by Frank Kimball.

Those enjoying the occasion included: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schwartzkopf, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schermer, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimball, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Mrs. W. C. Unrath, Miss Dorothy Germond, Miss Verla McLaughlin and Harold Holeslaw.

The last meeting of the club year will be held June 2, at which time election of officers will be held.

BRIDGE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT PERRIN HOME

COME BACK

CARMEN ABEEL
They say you aren't the one,
You're not the type for me,
They laugh, not trying to understand
How much you mean to me,
Now, honest, they don't bother me,
It really doesn't matter.
—But why don't you
Come back to me
So they can stop their chatter?
