

Graduation Program Is Held at Yoncalla

YONCALLA, May 28.—Commencement exercises for the senior class of Yoncalla high school were held in the high school, Thursday evening. The platform was beautifully decorated. The background was a garden, with large bushes of roses. In the foreground a very clever rock garden, made from moss and large rocks, with a fountain in the center, made a very pretty scene for the program.

The high school orchestra played the processional, followed by invocation by Rev. C. E. Brittain. Miss Lois Brant gave the salutatory address, after which Professor Marvin Krenk of the University of Oregon gave the address on the topic "Take Time Off." Miss Wanda Jones gave the class history, followed by Miss Marjorie Sheffield with the class will. Elbert Kingery gave the valedictory address by Miss Venola Marsh. Miss Betty Ruth Kruse and Norman Main played an accordion and drum duet. Professor Marsh then presented the scholarship award to his daughter, Miss Venola Marsh, valedictorian, and the athletic award to Miss Betty Ruth Kruse. Jay Huntington, representing the school board presented the diplomas to the following seniors: Lois Brant, Wanda Jones, Elbert Kingery, Betty Ruth Kruse, Esther Lee, Venola Marsh, Leo Morin, Albert Palmer, Euna Phillips and Marjorie Sheffield.
