GIRL SCOUTS HOLD REGULAR MEETINGS

SUTHERLIN, June 3.—Organizing for the first time in Sutherlin, the Girl Scouts with about twenty members began holding regular meetings two weeks ago in the Art building. Mrs. Lyla Chenoweth, leader, and Mrs. Marie Madsen and Anna Becroft, assistants, are working out a program that will give these interested girls the best that is available for the summer months in the out doors. Arts and crafts will be taken during the fall season. On Friday the group enjoyed a wieners roast at the Becroft picnic grounds, and a skating party for the senior members was held earlier in the week. Saturday morning the younger group met at the home of the leader to pull candy and play games. A two-weeks camping trip is being contemplated for later in the summer.

For the summer months swimming, bicycling, out of door games, hiking, out-door cookery, forest study, etc., has been planned. The girls plan to give an entertainment in the form of a vaudeville next month to finance their camping trip.

The committee selected for the sponsors of the Girl Scout troop are Mrs. Mark Jordan, Mrs. Frank Holgate, Mrs. Roy Hoyt, Mrs. Maurice Vogelwohl and Mrs. Walter Stowe. A meeting has been arranged for Thursday evening, June 5, at Jordan's store to make plans for the summer.
